Smil ANGELOV, Bulgarian Major, Commander of the Gendarmery of Serres, in September-October 1941, applicating in this district retaliations for the would-be rebellion on the part of Greek patriots, issued orders to the units of the Bulgarian Gendarmerie under his command, in accordance with which the men of the units proceeded to the putting to death of more than two thousand five hundred (2500) Greek citizens without any investigation or trial. Among the executed were: Christo Tsolekis, Stratis Stanimeris, Stergios Daradjis, all resident of Serres; Manoussaridis John, Michael Paparigas, Alecos Sakas, and others, resident of Anglista; George Michailidis, of Pefkon; Constantinos Karalaxidis and Panayotis Kiousses, of Monoklissia.

NOTE. The above crimes have been revealed by the supplementary investigation and are in connection with the mass-execution of Drama, from the 29th of September to the 20th of October 1941, for which a report (No 187, charge No 211/46) has been issued.

Witness Creon Floridis testifies that SMIL ANGELOV, C,O. of the Gendarmerie of Serres, in order to suppress a would-be rebellion of the Greeks in that district, ordered the arrest of 2500 Greek civilians, who were massacred in the most inhuman way during September and October 1941. Witness mentions the names of several victims, among whom were the monks of the Prodromos Monastery. The properties of most of the executed people were looted by Angelov and his organs.

Witness George Emranuel testifies that as he was informed by many people, ANGELOV gave the order of the arrest and execution of 2500 people in the Serres district. Among the victims were several of his relatives. Angelov ordered also many deportations of Greeks to Bulgaria, and as a system always looted the properties of his victims, in collaboration with his gendarmerie personel.

Witness George Kouzas testifies that ANGELOV apart from the mass massacre of September-October 1941 ordered, late in October 1941, the arrest and execution of 17 civilians in N. Skopos, 10 civilians in Angisti and 10 in Lefkon. He was one of the most cruel and blood-thirsty Bulgarians and is also responsible for a great number of deportations of Greeks to Bulgaria, and looting.
