SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Exposure of Phillip K. Strong and other Prisoners of War to bombing by American planes.

TRANSMITTED BY.
On the date given, while victim, together with other PwW was being transferred from Cabanatuan No. 1 to Ft. McKinley in Manila they were subjected to bombing by American planes. The trucks in which the prisoners were being transported were not marked properly and were parked alongside of the airfield. None of the prisoner personnel were allowed to leave the trucks at any time during the bombing. The Japanese personnel retired to fox holes during the raid. There was no way for the American air men to distinguish the prisoners from Japanese military units.

Victim was working on the camp Prison Farm when the accused engaged him in a friendly conversation. The accused was laughing and talking with his victim and gave him (victim) both a cigarette and a light. As soon as the victim got his cigarette lit, the accused administered a kick in his victim's stomach, then proceeded to kick him in the testicles and on the shins. When the victim put his hands up to protect himself, the accused kicked the skin off his hands.

Beating of eight or nine prisoners of war at Camp Murphy about June 1944.

TRANSMITTED BY.

Insert serial number under which the case is registered in the files of the National Office of the accusing State.
The victims, Corporal Ordean B. Kittleson, and seven or eight other prisoners of war whose names are unknown, while at work at an unnamed airfield apparently in the vicinity of Camp Murphy, bought coconuts from the Filipinos, broke them up and smuggled them into camp. They were searched by the Japanese guards and the coconuts discovered. Then the victims were beaten with hoe handles by the four guards named above. The beatings were of such severity that some of the victims became unconscious and some had their arms and wrists broken. Following the beating the victims were made to kneel in front of the Japanese guard house for twenty-four hours during which period they were periodically kicked and spit on.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Beating of 21 American Prisoners of War for failure to reveal the name of a prisoner who made a remark.

TRANSMITTED BY...
PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME

Witness states that on the day in question it was near quitting time, and the accused told the detail that they would cease work in 15 minutes. At the same time a conversation was going on between an officer P of W and an enlisted man, P of W. The remark "I hope so" was uttered. The accused presumed that this remark was made in connection with his statement made to the whole detail and asked the name of the man who uttered it. When no-one would tell him, he ordered the 21 men nearest him, to line up, drop to their knees and clasp their hands behind their backs. Then the accused took a bamboo pole, walked down the line, and struck each man on the back. When no one would still tell who made the remark, the accused removed his leather belt and struck each man in the face with it.

The information desired by the accused was never revealed, so the men were sent back to camp.

Date and place of commission of alleged crime: During month of January 1945. Camp Commander's Office, Educational Bldg., 1st Floor, at Santo Tomas Camp, Philippine Islands.

Number and description of crime in war crimes list: Ill-treatment of Prisoners of War.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Slapping of American internee without provocation.

Source: War Crimes Office, Washington, (Case No. 40-672)
During the month of January 1945 (exact date not ascertained), Lt. Shiraje, the Japanese Finance and Supply Officer at Santo Tomas, cuffed and slapped George Coleman in the face, causing his face to later become swollen. This occurred in the Commander's Office, 1st floor of Educational Building, Santo Tomas Camp.

According to hearsay information, the reason given for the slapping was that Coleman had left a package of rationed cigarettes in Lt. Shiraje's office and had returned to pick them up. Lt. Shiraje claimed the cigarettes as his own and accused Coleman of stealing them.

Pvt. Johnson.
Pvt. George Robertson.
PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

WITNESSES:

1. NAME: Joseph P. Lamkin.
ADDRESS: 3548 N. Trenton Ave., Portland, Oregon.

Signed and Sworn Statement.

This witness was one of the victims. States that the reason for the beating and torture may have been that he had, earlier in the day, picked up a Japanese sandal while walking in formation, carried it a short distance and threw it away.

2. NAME: Jack M. Donohoe.
ADDRESS: 779 W. 5th St., Reno, Nevada.

Signed and Sworn Statement.

Not an eyewitness; saw the victims being taken to the place of torture, but did not witness the beatings. Observed condition of the victims after they had been beaten. States that one victim was "Mc Grath", which is probably erroneous since Lamkin does not mention "Mc Grath"; possibly has Mc Grath confused with another man.

ADDRESS: 143 Steele St., Denver, Colorado.

Signed and Sworn Statement.

Saw the victims being led away and heard their screams. Particulars of the incident were related to him by Lamkin (W1).

Victims discovered after search of their canteens to have secreted shelled corn in them. For this offense and the further offense that they attempted to bring this shelled corn inside the prison compound they were confined for fourteen days in solitary confinement in the Camp Guardhouse. Cells were six by eight feet. While in solitary confinement the victims were not allowed to go to the latrine at the whim of their guards and as a consequence had to use their cells as a latrine. The victim's ration of water was one canteen per day and 250 grams of rice per day, nothing else.

These victims were placed in solitary confinement at the direction of the accused.

In August 1944 a Prisoner of War attempted escape but failed. Name not disclosed. Being returned to prison camp he was carried past United States Prisoners of War (many of whom were stretcher cases, ill and injured) collected together at an entertainment during celebration of Emperor's birthday. The escapee jumped from stretcher into the gathered crowd, was pursued by Japanese guards with fixed bayonets, and in "the stampede that resulted many of the stretcher cases and those seriously ill and wounded were badly injured." As punishment, all entertainment was permanently barred from all Prisoners of War, rations were cut and work details increased. Joseph Paul Keys, Sgt., ASN 7022764, was one of the victims. Victim purloined a small bar of soap while passing through the tool shed. Immediately afterwards the Japanese lined up the detail and started searching each member of the detail. The bar of soap was discovered in the victim's pocket. In front of the entire detail, the victim was forced to put his arm across two blocks of wood which were placed approximately six inches apart. Upon the order of the Japanese Lieutenant who was in charge of the detail, a guard proceeded to strike the victim's arm with a pick-ax handle. The blow was delivered on the arm just between the two blocks of wood. The arm was broken as a result.

The Lieutenant then ordered that the victim see no doctor, not even a United States medical officer, for 12 to 24 hours.

NOTES ON THE CASE

(Under this heading should be included the view taken as to (a) the degree of responsibility of the accused in view of his official position, e.g., was offence committed on the offender's own initiative, or in obedience to orders, or in carrying out a system approved by authority or a legal provision; (b) the probable defence; (c) whether the case appears to be reasonably complete.)

1. While no witness positively identifies either the Japanese guards concerned or the lieutenant who gave the order, a search in the files of the Accused and Suspects Branch of this office, places the identification of the Japanese lieutenant as Okamoto or Locomoto. He is described in Document 5.

2. There is sufficient material in this file to make out a prima facie case, even though the last name of the victim is unknown. A description of the victim's physical characteristics is given in Document 1.

Col. or Lt. Col. Mori, Japanese Army, stationed at Cabanatuan No. 1, Philippine Islands about 1 December 1943 and about 20 January 1944.

Date and place of commission of alleged crime.

Two separate incidents. About 1 December 1943 and about 20 January 1944.
Cabanatuan No. 1, Philippine Islands.

Number and description of crime in war crimes list.

Ill-treatment of Prisoners of War.

Short statement of facts.

Transmitted by
On or about 1 December 1943 victim, as United States POW C.O., went to the accused and begged him to issue to the POW the Red Cross boxes that had been delivered at the camp. Accused deliberately struck the victim across the face with the back of his hand.

On or about 20 January 1944 victim begged the accused for medicine and again was treated in the same manner by the accused.

Victim: Lt. Col. Curtis Beecher, USMC.
PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

ADDRESS: Box 337, Red Bay, Alabama.

Signed and Sworn Statement.

Eyewitness account. States that he has seen Lt. Col. Beecher many times come out of Col. Mori's office with his nose and mouth bleeding from the slaps he had received from Col. Mori.
NOTES ON THE CASE

There is sufficient evidence in this file to make out a prima facie case. A stronger case could be made by additional or corroborative evidence, but since no leads are given in the file, and all elements of the offense are present, the case is ready for trial.

It is believed that Lt. Col. Beecher was killed when the prison ship on which he was being taken to Japan was sunk.

Victim was a member of a work detail on the prison farm, actually engaged in setting out tomato plants. Accused, Naihara, walked up behind the victim and struck him heavily across the shoulders with a pick-handle. Victim straightened up and faced his assailant who continued to beat him about the arms and back until he fell to the ground, apparently unconscious. The accused, while his victim was lying on the ground, kicked him in the face and stomach, stood upon his body, and jumped up and down on his chest and stomach with hob-nailed shoes. This treatment lasted about two minutes, and then the accused walked away, leaving his victim unconscious in the sun.

No one was allowed to render any aid to Capt. Pearson, and after about thirty minutes, he regained consciousness and resumed work until he was allowed to go back to camp for the noon meal, some two hours afterwards. At camp, the United States Doctors gave him medical attention. He was hospitalized about a week in the barracks before he resumed work.

PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

WITNESS: William E. Schults, Opf., 694,539

ADDRESS: 831 Main St., Corsicana, Texas.

Signed and Sworn Statement.

Eyewitness account. Says written orders by the Japanese Camp C.O. were posted at every barracks to the effect that all Japanese guards were authorized to beat any and all United States prisoners they wanted to for any reason, and that the Prisoners of War could expect no protection from the Japanese Camp C.O. States further that the Japanese Camp C.O. and the Prison Farm C.O. approved the beating of Prisoners of War.
NOTES ON THE CASE

(Under this heading should be included the view taken as to (a) the degree of responsibility of the accused in view of his official position, e.g., was offence committed on the offender's own initiative, or in obedience to orders, or in carrying out a system approved by authority or a legal provision; (b) the probable defence; (c) whether the case appears to be reasonably complete.)

1. Sufficient evidence in this file to make out a prima facie case.

2. The following witnesses also saw the beating of Capt. Pearson

   Commander Stewart
   Cpl. Carl Stuart

   Both were liberated at the same time as the witness, Schults.

3. Major Ralph Hubbard, M.C. saw Capt. Pearson and talked with him shortly after this incident happened.

4. Capt. Pearson, according to Schults was taken to Japan.

At approximately 0800 on the day in question, a group of approximately 60 officers were lined up near the tool shed awaiting their issue of tools for the day's work. Without warning, the accused, Naihara, came from the tool shed swinging a club fashioned from a hoe handle and proceeded to strike at least thirty men in this group about the head, no more than one blow per victim. Maj. Dobrinic was the fourth or fifth man struck. The blow knocked Maj. Dobrinic to the ground and cut a gash in his head which bled considerably. Victim describes this weapon as a club 2" x 6' which also was used as a hoe handle.

Victims: Major Matt P. Dobrinic and thirty (30) other officers.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Collective punishment of all United States Prisoners of War at Bilibid Prison for act of two United States Prisoners of War.

TRANSMITTED BY

* Insert serial number under which the case is registered in the files of the National Office of the accusing State.
About June 1943, as punishment for failure of United States Prisoners of War to disclose names of two United States Prisoners of War who had stolen two pints of milk, and to compel the disclosure of this information, every United States Prisoner of War, including hospital and crutch cases, was forced to stand out in the sun until the two responsible revealed themselves. They stood approximately two hours before the two responsible prisoners (unnamed) confessed. As additional punishment, rations were cut, and entertainment privileges denied and Prisoners of War forced to go to bed early.

Victim was at work in the stubble field when he asked permission to go over the fence to relieve himself. As he finished, the accused, Pfc. Tanaka, came up, called the victim to attention, took his shovel away from him and struck him on the jaw twice. Then the accused attempted to wrestle him to the ground. When this failed the victim was ordered to wait and the accused walked off some distance, borrowed a club from another Japanese guard, returned and beat the victim across the shins, both upper arms, shoulders, and then on the head. When the victim fell to the ground the accused kicked him several times on the head. Victim was able to work after the beating.

The time of this beating is fixed in the victim's mind since it happened on his (the victim's) birthday.

Victim was digging holes on the Camp Farm for the planting of cucumbers. The Japanese Farm supervisor had set a stake in the ground at the end of the row and had ordered the work detail to sight on the stick in order that they might keep their holes straight.

After victim had dug approximately ten holes, another supervisor ordered victim to measure a certain distance from the edge of the field. Since the edge of the field was crooked, this caused the rows to be crooked. When victim had completed approximately fifteen more holes, the first supervisor (accused, Naihara,) returned, and noticing the crooked row of holes, beat the victim with a pickhandle, severely bruising his arms and legs.

At Christmas, 1943, the victims staged an entertainment for the prisoners. In appreciation the ranking United States officer gave them some alcoholic drinks. When the Japanese learned of this they stripped the men, forced them to kneel on hands and knees in water and then applied an electric current to their bodies in an effort to force them to tell where they had obtained the alcohol. This treatment continued from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m. During that time the men were forced to remain kneeling and were given no food or water.

Sergeant Mc Fee was digging camotes outside the camp fence with another prisoner of war. Both men had permission to dig camotes at that place. Mc Fee called to another man inside the fence to throw him a canteen, which he did. The guard called to Mc Fee, who exhibited the canteen to him. The guard thereupon shot and killed Mc Fee. The excuse for the shooting, as given by the camp commandant, was that Mc Fee was attempting to escape.

Victim: Sergeant John Mc Fee (Mc Phee), Medical Corps.
WITNESSES:

1. Joseph E. Lamkin
   ADDRESS: 3548 N. Trenton Ave., Portland, Ore.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness. States that Mc Fee had permission to be outside the compound.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. States that Mc Fee was detailed to work outside the fence and that he was shot by the guard when he called to another prisoner to throw a canteen of water over the fence to him.

24. Willard L. Haskell, Jr.

25. Lawrence Tipton.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. States that Mc Fee had been detailed to work outside the fence and was shot three times after having received the canteen. Was standing about 50 feet from the scene and saw no evidence that Mc Fee was attempting to escape.
NOTES ON THE CASE

Statements of the witnesses are not in agreement as to the incidental details occurring before Mo Fee was shot, but all agree that he was not attempting to escape and that he was shot without provocation.

A detail of 10 men and one officer was sent to a warehouse to draw rations. It was the custom of the Japanese to place attractive articles near the prisoners and then punish those who took them. On this occasion Rebouche took some candy, and Mo Cawskey took a pair of tinsnips. When these articles were found by the Japanese, Rebouche admitted that he took the candy; he was then hit on the head with a club. No one admitted taking the tinsnips. Okamoto loaded his rifle and threatened to kill all unless a confession was had. Lt. Hashimoto then made Rebouche and Captain Wetzel kneel, holding a 2 x 4 overhead for 10 or 15 minutes until Mo Cawskey confessed that he took the tinsnips. Mo Cawskey was given 20 days in the guardhouse on one meal a day. When he was released his feet were badly swollen.

Victims: Captain Wetzel.
John Mo Cawskey.
Rebouche.
WITNESS: Isaac B. Hagins.

Signed and Sworn Statement.

Was a member of the detail and an eyewitness.
NOTES ON THE CASE

Magazine article, Document No. 7, states that McCowsky ("Jim") did not steal the tinanips but took them for the purpose of repairing a stove and that he was severely beaten by Hasimoto and after a mock trial was sentenced to confinement for 21 days during which time he was periodically beaten, mistreated, and starved.

While working on the Lasang Airfield, one work detail was slow in finishing its assigned work. As punishment and to set an example for the others, the entire detail of men was required to kneel in an erect position on the sharp edge of an up-turned railroad rail for nearly one half-hour exposed to the sun. As a result of this, legs and knees were severely cut. Men of all the details, including those who had been forced to kneel on the rail, were later that day forced to run barefooted over coral and rough ground nearly 2 kms. to the compound.

Victims: Approximately 50 United States Prisoners of War.
WITNESSES:

1. Cecil E. McClure, T/Sgt, 6288045
2. William S. Horabin, T/4, 20862393
3. Ray E. Billia773, T/4, 6913614

12. Jesse Bier, T/3, 1107163
14. Olis O. Overton, T/5, 17010094

Addresses all above witnesses (7-14) are listed in front of folder of "Affidavits Liloy Sinking, JAG 1-100". All above witnesses (7-14) signed a joint sworn statement.

15. Harry O. Fisheer, Lt Col
18. Theodore L. Pflueger, Capt.
20. Paul S. Snowden, 2nd Lt.
21. William F. Cain, Capt.
22. Edward S. Tresnwald, 1st Lt.

Addresses of all above witnesses (15-22) are listed in front of folder of "Affidavits Liloy Sinking, JAG 1-100". All above witnesses (15-22) signed a joint sworn statement. Statement merely states witnesses saw PW's forced to kneel for "Varying periods" (more than one occasion implied that this offense occurred).

23. Victor L. Marie, 8/Sgt, 6669166
24. William L. Hall, Cpl, 20935151

Signed and Sworn Statement (23,24). Witness (24) states he was one of the persons who was made to kneel on the rail. Statements of other witnesses do not indicate that any of them signing were themselves victims of the kneeling (though possibly some were). All, however, had to run over the ooral.

26. Donald J. Grans, ADDRESS: 270 Howard St., Fresno, California.
28. William E. Biddle, Original Statement in 67-47. States that the Lt. Hashimoto ("Little Caesar") is responsible and that "Bubble Nose Mano" assisted Hashimoto.
29. Wm C. Chenowith, Original Statement in 60-6. Witnessed condition of the victims after the incident.
30. Wm J. Garleb, Signed and Sworn Statement. States that this type of punishment was not a regular practice. Places date "around in April 1944".
31. Ralph H. Person, Signed and Sworn Statement. States that approximately 50 prisoners were tortured in this manner.
32. Felix G. Sharp, Jr., Signed and Sworn Statement. Corroborates above witnesses and states that this form of torture occurred on numbers of occasions.
NOTES ON THE CASE

(Under this heading should be included the view taken as to (a) the degree of responsibility of the accused in view of his official position, e.g., was offence committed on the offender's own initiative, or in obedience to orders, or in carrying out a system approved by authority or a legal provision; (b) the probable defence; (c) whether the case appears to be reasonably complete.)

Witnesses are not in agreement as to the exact number of men punished and exact date, however a prima facie case of mass punishment and torture is made out.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Victim was in charge of a work detail on the Prison Farm. The detail was ordered to move a manure pile by hand, using litters. The entire personnel of this detail were half-starved and many were suffering so badly from dysentery that they fell under their loads and could not carry on. Victim either demanded that the loads be lightened or was charged with the responsibility for the failure to perform this work detail. He was badly beaten by the Japanese guards and had to be hospitalized.

Capt. Wermuth was later removed to a prison camp in China.

Victim: Capt. Arthur Wermuth.
PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

WITNESSES:

1. Name: Pfc. Louis C. Zelis
   ADDRESS: Chicago.
   Witness was a member of victims work detail and evidently an eyewitness. States that some of the detail were "insane with disease", and that victim knowing the condition of his men, demanded of the Japanese officer that his men be treated decently. States further that this Japanese officer thereupon used judo on the victim, throwing him to the ground. The guard thereupon used their hob-nailed boots on the victim. Victim was hospitalized for some time.

2. NAME: Pfc. Zelis (formerly Tank corpsman)
   ADDRESS: Chicago.
   See above - same statement.

3. NAME: William D. Gibson, 1st Lt., 0-890565
   Signed and Sworn Statement.
   Places date of occurrence in August or September 1944. Says victim was hospitalized for about a week, because he was beaten with a club.

4. NAME: John V. Vaughan, Cpl., 14050713
   ADDRESS: Oxford, N.C.
   Signed and Sworn Statement.
   States that this incident took place in February 1944. Was an eyewitness. States that victim was beaten in the small of his back with a nick handle; that he did not fall, but had a hard time remaining in a standing position. However, witness states he was about 100 yards from where the beating took place at the time. Says accused had 3 bars "about the size of the Presidential Unit Citation" on his pocket.

5. NAME: Abraham Richstein, Sgt., 11007737
   Signed and Sworn Statement.
   Confirms the beating. Shows Japanese policy of all guards carrying clubs approximately 4 feet long which were used "unsparingly" on United States Prisoners of War. Facts entirely hearsay.

6. NAME: Isidore Oppenheim, T/Sl.t., R32537
   ADDRESS: 314 Sixth Ave., Newark, N.J.
   Signed and Sworn Statement.
   Eyewitness. Confirms witness Zelis as to essential facts.

7. NAME: Matt D. Dobunic, Maj.
   Signed and Sworn Statement.
   Says Captain Wermuth told him (witness) of beatings received from the Japanese guard called "Laughing Boy".
NOTES ON THE CASE

(Under this heading should be included the view taken as to (a) the degree of responsibility of the accused in view of his official position, e.g., was offence committed on the offender's own initiative, or in obedience to orders, or in carrying out a system approved by authority or a legal provision; (b) the probable defence; (c) whether the case appears to be reasonably complete.)

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Torture and solitary confinement of United States Officers and enlisted Prisoners of War for approximately 108 days.

TRANSMITTED BY

*Insert serial number under which the case is registered in the files of the National Office of the accusing State.
Fourteen United States Prisoners of War personnel and three civilians (United States?) were taken into custody for smuggling food, money, letters, and supplies into camp. Col. Oliver admits this was true. The victims were interrogated by Japanese officers through a civilian interpreter at the M.P. Headquarters in the City of Cabanatuan. Lt. Col. Schwartz was beaten severely at least once and Col. Oliver three times the first day. M/Sgt Patrick was beaten severely at least eight times during his interrogation between 10th and 24th of May, 1944. All personnel were threatened with execution. After several days at M.P. Headquarters, the victims were returned to Cabanatuan No 1 and tied up in front of a Japanese guardhouse for several days. Then they were kept in another guardhouse near the main gate in solitary confinement until their release in August 1944.

Col. Oliver states that Burns (Byrne), Sherk, and Zimmerman, and a captain whose name he does not know were released and returned to duty upon the return from M.P. Headquarters to Cabanatuan No. 1. The rest stayed in solitary confinement until sometime in August 1944.

PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

WITNESSES:

1. NAME:

   Lloyd A. Jackson, Cpl. 37055827.

   ADDRESS:

   Holcomb, Missouri.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness account. Says that one of the victims was Col. Biggs. File 40-4 conclusively proves that Col. Biggs was executed in September 1942. This witness has confused Col. Mack with Col. Biggs. He confirms the offense for which these men were tortured, confirms Col. Oliver's heart attack, and sentences of others. States they were in solitary confinement four months. For what this witness knows, he corroborates victim's testimony.

2. NAME:

   Jack A. Comstock, Maj. (Med) C-400866

   ADDRESS:

   1603-4th St., Boulder, Colo.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Hearsay account. Gives a list of victims. Corroborates victims' statements. Says his facts reported to him by victims Col. Oliver and M/Sgt Patrick. Note that this witness is a medical officer and weight should be given to his observation of reduced rations and lack of exercise permitted the victims. Probably eyewitness to events happening in Cabanatuan POW camp and hearsay as to what transpired at City of Cabanatuan.

3. NAME:

   Alfred C. Oliver Jr., Col. (Ch. C.)

   Signed and Sworn Statement. One of the victims. Eyewitness account. States he was made to kneel across three branches of wood and while in this position was beaten by the senior Japanese officer present who used a green bamboo club about five feet in length, one and one-half inches in diameter. Victim was beaten and kicked into unconsciousness. Says his back looked like a piece of raw liver. States that upon his return to Camp No. 1, this victim was tied up in front of the Japanese guardhouse for several days and then placed in solitary confinement until the latter part of August 1944. He was removed from solitary confinement after he suffered a heart attack, falling and injuring his right elbow and hand. Victim contracted Malaria while in solitary confinement due to the refusal of the Japanese to provide him with a mosquito net. Note: Col. Oliver says that there were two lieutenants, brothers, named Sherk, but no other witness confirms this.

4. NAME:

   Albert W. Fields, Col. C-11505.

   Signed and Sworn Statement.

   Confirms part of list of victims and length of "close confinement".
NOTES ON THE CASE

(Under this heading should be included the view taken as to (a) the degree of responsibility of the accused in view of his official position, e.g., was offence committed on the offender's own initiative, or in obedience to orders, or in carrying out a system approved by authority or a legal provision; (b) the probable defence; (c) whether the case appears to be reasonably complete.)

There is sufficient evidence in this file to make out a prima facie case. Documents 2 and 5 are alone sufficient. The other documents corroborate the main facts and should be used as such.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Beating and injuring of Capt. Harry M. Brown.

Victim was working with one 50 man detail and through error, became mixed in with another detail. Victim was standing alone when Japanese discovered a man missing from one of the details. The three guards came over to where the victim was standing. One slapped him, another hit him in the jaw with his fist, knocking him to the ground; thereupon all three jumped on their victim with hob-nailed shoes about the face and chest. Victim suffered lacerations of the mouth, intense nausea and severe headaches lasting about ten days.

Victim and a working party were rebuilding a bridge which had been washed away. Victim and three others were ordered to put a bridge timber 12" x 12" x 10 ft. into place, but he was not physically able to pick up his end of the timber. The accused, "Little Speedo", seeing his victim was not lifting the timber struck him across the back over the kidneys with a club about three inches in diameter and approximately four feet long. Victim was kicked three or four times in the ribs after he fell to the ground.

Victim was unable to stand the rest of the afternoon and could not work for ten days. He was treated by a United States medical officer Prisoner of War at the camp dispensary.

During second week of June 1943, unidentified victim, a Mexican boy, collapsed at work at Nichols Field. "Pick Handle Pete", using a pick handle, administered a brutal beating until and after victim was unconscious. "Issimoto" arrived and with his fists and feet further beat the unconscious boy who was then carried to Pasay. At Pasay "Wolf" severely punched victim and struck him, while unconscious, with the butt of a revolver. Thereupon the aforesaid Japanese administered the "water cure". Then a United States doctor, the late Captain John W. Haines, M.C., U.S.A., was summoned to scene. Upon arrival, "Wolf" struck him repeatedly with a pistol, causing semi-consciousness, broken jaw, loss of three teeth. Major Brest, M.C., U.S.A., interceded and was struck by "Wolf", suffering a laceration of the face. The unidentified soldier died the same day.

The victim, having reported to the wrong work detail, was returned to the camp. He was forced to stand at attention before all United States prisoners while the accused "DUCK LEGS" beat him with a hoe, four or five times across the small of the back. The victim extended his hand to avert one of the blows and his hand was struck. A civilian Japanese Civil Engineer interceded and stopped the beating. The victim was badly injured and suffered broken bones in his hand. During the said beating, the Japanese in charge of the work detail, the accused, the "WOLF", stood by without interfering.

Working on a construction detail, the victim became exhausted and announced to the "Wolf" that he (the victim) wanted to be shot. Whereupon the victim walked away for about 50 yards. The Japanese dragged him back to the work detail with a rope tied around his neck. The victim was tied to a post for the rest of the day and then returned to the Pasay Camp where he was tied up for five days without food or water. While tied up, he was brutally beaten in such a manner that he could not walk. At the expiration of five days, the victim was removed from the camp. Three days later, the United States Medical Officer, Major Bress, was summoned to the construction area of Manila where he saw the body of the victim lying in a coffin. According to Major Bress, the victim had died from exposure and beating by the Japanese. Major Bress was asked to sign a death certificate stating the victim had died from beri-beri. When Major Bress refused to sign the certificate, he was beaten in the head and face by the Japanese, and suffered severe lacerations and two broken teeth.

Lt. Huffcutt was working in his garden as was permitted by the rules of the camp. He was nowhere near the inner fence. A Japanese tower guard shouted at him and the victim failed to hear. The guard thereupon deliberately shot, wounding Lt. Huffcutt. When he rose to his knees and called for help the guard rested his rifle on the tower's railing, took deliberate aim and fired a second time, hitting Lt. Huffcutt. The Japanese Lieutenant who was officer of the day and the Japanese guards refused to let anyone (American POW personnel) approach the victim, so he expired and was buried the same day. So far as is known no punishment was meted out to the guard except to have him relieved of his post. Sometime later he was transferred from the camp.

Victim: 2nd Lt. Robert Huffcutt, Signal Corps.
1. Lt. Alma Salm, USNR, Oakland, California.
   Newspaper Item. The statement is a direct quotation and was printed in the N.Y. Times of 2 March 1945.

2. Robert D. Johnston, Col., Inf., USA, 0-18438, Columbus, Georgia.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Gives date as September 1944 and says sentry shot Lt. Huffcutt dead without provocation. Definitely states Major Tagasaki was C.O. of the camp when incident took place. This date obviously error in light of subsequent documents in the file.

3. Eugene Forquer, Capt., 53rd INF., 0-362772
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Diary entry made the date of the death of victim. Patently an eyewitness account and gives minute detail. Says victim went into his garden to pick okra for his supper - he was at least 12 feet from the inside fence of the compound. States that inner fence is incomplete and further describes the location of fences and landmarks. Says victim failed to hear tower guard 75 yards away yelling at him. States further that first shot entered victim's side above the hip. Victim dropped and called for help, then guard shot him for the second time. States either shot was fatal. The Japanese forbade anyone to approach victim for half an hour. Says the Japanese doctor, who was officer of the day, made no effort to assist victim, though he was one of the first on the scene. That afternoon at roll call a statement was read to the prisoners of war in which it was declared that Lt. Huffcutt was shot for being outside the area.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Corroborates document above. Says that when Japanese doctor saw victim's body "he just laughed".

5. Ralph Blythe, 1st Lt.
   Photostatic copy of original diary entry of August 11, 1944, and photostatic copy of sketch of scene of murder. Great weight should be attached to these two documents as they were made by an eyewitness on the spot and on the day of the killing. While the details were fresh, states tower guard rested rifle for second shot on tower railing.

6. Albert N. Sarwold, Capt., USPHS; 5900 Steadman Ave., Dearborn, Michigan.
   Signed Statement. Hearsay - This witness is a medical officer, and did however, view Lt. Huffcutt's body after it was brought into the morgue of Cabanatuan No.1.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. This witness is a surgical technician in the medical department, U.S. Army. Can positively identify Lt. Huffcutt, knows who examined the body in the morgue at Cabanatuan, can describe the wound that caused death, and the actual cause of death. Hearsay as to facts leading up to victim's death. Says nothing was ever done by the Japanese about coded telegrams he was supposed to know about. Says nothing was ever done by the Japanese about victim's death.

8. John K. Borneman, Lt. Col. (ChC)
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness account of shooting. Was about 50 yards away. Brings out the fact that Lt. Huffcutt was slightly deaf as a result of taking quinine and did not hear the tower guard shout at him. Confirms the official reason for the shooting as given out that night by the Japanese, also that instructions about the fence were read for the first time.

NOTES ON THE CASE

The facts clearly make out a prima facie case. In view of the roll call statement made after the shooting, the publications of orders about the fence the day after the killing, the failure to give medical attention, and the fact that the guard was permitted to perform his regular duties the next day, it must be concluded that the Accused No. 1 and 2 not only permitted these crimes to go unpunished, but actually knew they were being perpetrated and sanctioned them.

9. Jack A. Comstock, Major, M.C., 0-400866, 1603 4th St., Boulder, Colorado. Signed and Sworn Statement. This witness also a Medical Officer, confirms the fact that no help was allowed to victim by the Japanese - states to facts but viewed the body after death. Says that the body had two bullet wounds in it.

10. William D. Gibson, 1st Lt., 0990566, Leonard St., Stamford, Conn. Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness says victim was shot twice - either shot would have been fatal. Says tower guard was under the Japanese sergeant nick-named "Big Speedo".

11. James A. Pittman, Col., 18038783, P.O. Box 322, Dublin, Tex. Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness says guard who shot Lt. Huffcutt was relieved of his post immediately following the killing, says the orders about the fence (approaching within 3 meters) were published by Major Takasaki the day after the killing.

12. Gaylord B. Chores, 7/4, 686526, 827 S. Mill, Kansas City, Kansas. Signed and Sworn Statement. Confirms the essential facts of the case - Believes the tower guard who shot Lt. Huffcutt to be a Formosan. Corroborates the fact that Major Takasaki was Camp C.O.

16. Cas L. Davis, Col., 35031019, 3200 Gavalle Ave., Austin, Texas. Signed and Sworn Statement. This witness was a Medical Adjutant, working in the Cabanatuan dental clinic. As such he was familiar with Japanese Medical personnel in the camp and therefore weight must be given to his testimony as to who the Japanese Camp Doctor was. This witness only saw the body of the victim being carried to the morgue, the rest of the facts of the case being hearsay. He names and describes the Camp Adjutant, describes the physical appearance of the major in command of the camp at this time, and the "Japanese Camp Sergeant major.

17. Seaton Foley, Capt., 099077, 1/Hillcrest Dr., San Rafael, Calif. Signed and Sworn Statement. Says the guard who shot Lt. Huffcutt performed his regular duties the next day. Eyewitness confirms essential facts of the case.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

The victims attempted to escape from this camp. They were caught, beaten and tortured and then executed on orders of Accused No.2. Accused No.4 was in charge of the firing squad which executed two of the victims; the third victim was beheaded. Accused No.5 was a member of firing squad. Accused No.3 was in charge of the beatings of victims.

On or about 20 September 1942, victims attempted to escape from Cabanatuan P.W. Camp No.1, and were caught. Immediately following their apprehension, the three men were "interviewed" by Lt. Col. Mori, the C.O. of the P.O.W. Camp. From this "interview, without any trial whatsoever, these victims were stripped of their outer clothing, tied to posts with their arms pulled over their heads until they were neither standing nor sitting. They remained in this position for two or three days without food or water, part of which time a severe typhoon was raging. All Japanese guards frequently and cruelly beat the helpless officers and every passing Filipino was forced to beat them thoroughly before the Japanese would allow them to pass on. At the end of this torture, Lt. Col. Biggs was beheaded and the other two officers were shot.

Victims:
Lt. Col. Lloyd W. Biggs, CAC
Lt. Col. Howard Breitung, CAC
Lt. Roy Gilbert, USNR
PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE

1. Bert Schwarz, Capt. A.C., 69-111 65th Road, Forrest Hills, N.Y.
   Sworn Statement. Saw victims tortured; did not see executions - knew victims by name.

2. Lewis A. Moore, C/5 6967765. Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness to beating and to fact that they were then taken from the camp.

   Statement. Eyewitness to torture and to fact that Japanese guards led victims away - Heard volley of firing squad. Was present when Japanese officially announced the executions - Enumerates Japanese grave digging detail and also number of firing squad. Is exact and positive as to details.

8. John K. Borneman, Lt.Col. Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness account of events taking place from apprehension of victims in their escape attempt until questioned by Col. Mori; location and particulars of torture; length of torture; participation of Filipinos in torture of victims under duress by Japanese; Victims remained trussed to posts exposed to a typhoon; enumeration of injuries received by victims; time, place, date, and manner of execution; firing squad under orders of Col. Mori and "Goldtooth".

9. Alfred C. Oliver, Jr., Col.
   Statement. Eyewitness to torture of victims. Was member of group punished because of these officers' (victims) attempt to escape solitary confinement of each of group for one month - Related offense.

    Signed and Sworn Statement. Witness was on burial detail for 3 Army officers; can identify Col. Mori and knows one of firing squad as "Butle Brain". This witness seems confused as to dates and victims.

    Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness to beatings and torture of victims; was in hearing distance during Col. Mori's "interview" with them; gives account of slappings and blows administered during interview; gives details of further torture by hearsay; Believes Col. Mori executed men with full approval of higher Japanese Officials.

NOTES ON THE CASE

The Japanese were brazen enough to announce the executions of the victims in violation of Article 56 of the Geneva Prisoner of War Convention 1929, which provides punishment for an incomplete escape shall be only disciplinary. It is believed that approval for this execution was obtained from Manila Headquarters of the Japanese Army as indicated in Ensign Berry’s sworn statement; therefore Accused No.1 is presumed to have had knowledge of and sanctioned this abominable act.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

The victims were caught for bringing food into the camp. They were questioned, given a choice of torture or execution, tortured, and then executed without benefit of trial.

Sometime during summer, June, July, or August 1942, five United States enlisted men, one of whom was named "Rod Sisson" were apprehended in the act of receiving food from outside the P.O.W. Camp. The other parties to the transaction were two Filipinos. The seven were questioned at night, immediately after their apprehension by Niimura (Nishimura) the civilian interpreter at Cabanatuan; abused and beaten during their interrogation. The next day, they were seen to be trussed to fence posts along the road outside the camp, but in full view of the camp. Their bound hands were elevated to a height that their toes barely touched the ground, bare-headed in a tropical sun all day. The second day, the victims were marched to a field where graves had been previously prepared, and executed by a firing squad. There were several volleys fired before they were all dead. So far as known, no trial was held.

Since several executions took place at Cabanatuan about this time, some of the witnesses are hazy as to the details, number of victims, and the exact dates.

Victims: Pvt. Kenneth Sisson - Btry C, 60th CAC
Gastelum - An Army EM
Borglum - An Army EM
S/Sgt. or Sgt. Hunt - Medical Dept., USA
Grimes - EM

Two Filipino Civilians.
WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE

1. Bert Schwarz, Capt., AC
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Saw 5 enlisted men and 2 Filipinos beaten and tortured because they obtained food through the fence. No further details given - Makes no reference to 2 separate groups.

2. Lewis A. Moore, 2/3 6967765
   Statement. Merely identifies "Red Sisson" as one of 5 Americans executed by Japanese. Says he "heard the shots" but did not see the actual execution.

3. Edwin A. Petry, S/Sgt. 2222623
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Places date as "middle of June 1942", gives number executed as 3 Americans, also tells of 2 Filipinos involved in case. NOT an eyewitness merely knows above facts.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Gives more details than preceding witnesses. Places incident as occurring in July 1942. Relates that 6 were involved; Japanese guard (unknown) took their bribes and then double crossed the victims. Victims were given choice of 72 hours continuous torture (i.e. tied to fence without food or water) or execution. All victims elected the former. Relates one victim slipped his bonds and ran; was caught and then all 6 victims were forced to dig their own graves and shot. Three volleys necessary to kill victims. Was eyewitness to execution of six victims. Identifies escape victim as a man named Sam - of Jewish faith.

5. Stephen W. Melnik, Lt. Col. CAC, Office AC of 3, G-2, GHQ, APO 500
   Signed and Sworn Statement, gives date as "sometime in July (1942); goes into more detail concerning the practice of going AWOL from the camp to purchase food returning and selling food to P.O.W. Says one was caught and under questioning by Nishimura. This witness heard him reveal the names of six more (4 Americans and 2 Filipinos). Says all American prisoners were put in their barracks before execution of the victims.

6. Memorandum of Edward O'Hare, 2d Lt., JAGD.
   Comment: Hearsay but supplies the following names:
   Pvt. Kenneth Sisson - Btry C. 60th CAC
   -- Castelun - Army EM
   -- Borglum - Army EM

   Lt. Col. Borneman states that on hearsay there were six executed before he arrived at Cabanatuan including the above. He also lists eight others, not a part of this case.

7. William W. Duncan, Col.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Saw the torture of six men; the men being marched out of camp by guards carrying rifles and shovels - "heard the shots" but did not see actual execution. Says four executed in one group, two in another. Identifies Col. Mori as Camp C.O. at Cabanatuan.

8. George W. Kane, Capt. O-311662
   1200 Van Buren St. S.W., Atlanta, Ga.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness to 26 hours of torture of 3 American P.O.W., including Sisson. Identifies Sisson as man who loosed his bonds and escaped. Was recaptured when he gave himself up and all three men shot on order of Japanese camp officer.

    1603 4th St., Boulder, Colorado.
    Signed and Sworn Statement. Places S/Sgt. Hunt as one of the victims. States he saw 6 Americans and 3 Filipinos tied to posts prior to execution and that 6 Americans were executed. Says that he knows that Lt. Col. Mori personally issued orders for the execution.

NOTES ON THE CASE

Although the names of the Japanese who formed the firing squad are not known, there is positive evidence that Accused No.2 participated in the torture of the victims and that Accused No.1 was present at the execution and sanctioned it.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Places incident on or about 29 June 1942.
   Gives one of victim’s names as Grimes. However, says that seven Americans were executed. Eyewitness to execution - Hearsay as to reason for execution. Identifies Col. Mori as Commanding Officer of the Camp and says that execution “was done with his full knowledge and consent”.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Believes seven P.O.W. were executed. Eyewitness to execution of three; states incident occurred in August 1942. Eyewitness to pre-execution torture. Says that same date four more men were executed on the opposite side of camp from where this witness saw three being executed. Corroborates the escape of one of the victims. Identifies Major or Colonel Mori as the Japanese C.O. of the Camp. Gives information of Japanese policy by Maj. Mori as to escapes from the prison camp.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Victim was encouraged by an unknown Japanese guard to leave the camp enclosure. When the Japanese Officer of the Day came upon the scene, the guard claimed the victim was attempting an escape. The victim was tortured, beaten and then executed on the following day.

Source: War Crimes Office, Washington, (Case No. 40-8).
Transmitted by:
Sometime in February 1944, exact date unknown, victim was trading his personal property to one of the Japanese guards outside the camp fence. Upon the appearance of the Japanese Officer of the Day, the Japanese guard, in order to cover up his own dereliction of duty, claimed the victim was attempting to escape by cutting the wire with pliers. The search of the victim and vicinity revealed no pliers. This fact was noted by several witnesses. After the search, the victim was tied up at approximately 2200 outside the guard house. He was beaten and mistreated by each relief of the guard, and on the following day, was carried outside the camp area and shot.

Victim: Pfc. Garcia (?) Trajillo of 200th Coast Artillery Corps. Sometimes given as Trejello or Trujillo.

WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Does not state whether or not he was an eyewitness.
   Says that the Mexican was trading his shirt for tobacco. See Brief Statement of Essential Facts.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Says victim was a perimeter guard in the hospital who had crawled through the fence to the Japanese guard just outside the fence.
   The next day saw the victim with his hands tied behind him being marched down the road to the usual place of execution.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Hearsay - places date at approximately 14 April 1943. Says he was told that Japanese ordered victim into a restricted area, then arrested him, tied him up, and executed him the next morning. Says he saw the arrest and that the Japanese authorities announced the execution.
   The above testimony should be disregarded in all of the hearsay phases and treated only as corroborative of the actual arrest and of the announcement by the Japanese of the execution.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Says victim was member of 200th OAC New Mexico National Guard. Eye witness to torture (beating) to being marched out of camp, and heard shots fired. Saw Japanese who marched him out return without victim. Says Maj. Iwanaka issued death certificate of execution by shooting.
   Knows the general contents of official investigation made which confirms essential facts.

5. Darnell W. Kadolph, Sgt.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Says victim was executed by a squad of eight Japanese. Eye witness to execution - Says victim squirmed so much until he was tied to a tree before the execution squad could shoot him. Says firing squad composed of recruits and were very nervous. Hearsay as to reason for execution.

6. Elton D. Winstead, Maj., O-354444, Rt. 1, Box 21, Wilson, N.C.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Hearsay - However, facts tally with eyewitness accounts. Also confirms the fact that Manila Headquarters ordered that the victim not be shot after the execution had already taken place.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Corroborates the essential facts. Says victim was forced to dig his own grave. Confirms that Manila countermanded the execution order. Says victim was on duty in camp as a Medical Corpsman. Says that after Manila ordered the victim to be allowed to live, he was disinterred from the execution spot and re-interred in the camp cemetery.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Witness was Sergeant of United States guard detail
   February 1944. Victim was on witnesses' guard detail and posted on Post No. 4, which was located in the rear of the hospital area. This tour lasted from 0300 to 0500. On learning that victim was removed from his post by the Japanese, witness proceeded immediately to Japanese guard house where he was officially informed that the victim was trying to escape through the fence and was caught. Witness thereupon went to a point where he could see the victim.
   Trajillo's face was covered with blood; his blood-stained club was lying beside him. Witness requested permission to speak to victim but was refused. Says victim was tied at Japanese guardhouse the next morning until approximately 0900 when he was marched under guard up the main road leading to Bongabong.
   Witness heard the execution volley. Saw squad returning to camp without Trajillo. Witness never saw Trajillo again. Knows Trajillo was executed. Says Col. Mori was camp Commander at this time.
NOTES ON THE CASE

There is sufficient evidence to connect both accused to this crime, since both had knowledge of and permitted the execution to take place, and this evidently in violation of orders issued at Manila not to execute the victim.

Sometime in August 1942 an unknown United States EM was recaptured after an attempted escape. He was staked to a post near the main gate of the camp, and beaten with sticks until his features were unrecognizable. A Japanese soldier then placed the burning end of a cigarette to the victim's nose, and another Japanese slit both nostrils of the victim with his bayonet.

Victim: Unknown United States enlisted man - P.O.W.

Victim was carrying fertilizer out to the camp farm. He received an order from either the guard or the supervisor which he did not understand. The victim remarked to another officer that he would be a "son of a bitch" if he knew what he was supposed to do. The guard heard him and asked another guard what the term meant. The guard thought that he (the guard) was the one referred to. The supervisor (or guard) was a large man, about 6 feet tall and well built. Lt. Debrere was short, thin, underweight and had been ill at this time. The guard or supervisor hit his victim on the right jaw, knocking him into a ditch about ten feet away. In all, the victim arose and was knocked down seven times. Finally when the victim was unable to arise, he was kicked by his assailant in the ribs, testicles, and face. He was denied medical aid for some time after the beating. The victim's injuries were severe lacerations, three fractured ribs, and loss of one tooth.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Victim, a member of a farm work detail, was missing at the end of a work day. After a search, he was found by the Japanese, beaten, tortured, and killed by several Japanese guards, among whom was accused No.3. The beating lasted an hour and victim's body was horribly mutilated.

On or about 4 July 1943, victim was a member of a farm work detail and was missing when the time came for the detail to return to the Camp. The Japanese searched for him and he was found in a nearby barrio southwest of the camp that same day. He was beaten, tortured and killed. Around midnight of 4 July 1943, his body was brought back to the camp and placed in the hospital morgue. On July 5th, the entire United States staff of the hospital and the camp were required to view the body under orders of the Japanese so that everyone would know what would happen to any prisoner who escaped from the camp. Connolly had compound fractures of left arm and leg; fractured skull; many bayonet wounds of abdomen and back; a bullet wound of his chest; and one eye was gouged out. The victim was buried on 5 July 1943.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Viewed the body of the victim. Says bullet wound in victim's back near the spine. Confirms other injuries in particulars on Page 2 hereof. As this man was a medical officer, weight must be given to his enumeration and extent of injuries of the victim.

3. Howard Damon, 1st S.t., 72 Nichols St., Lewiston, Maine.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Witness was in the hospital at the time and was one who viewed victim's body. Says the victim's teeth were knocked out in addition to other injuries as are set forth in the essential facts of this case. Does say that man was dead from shooting before mutilation of the body took place.

4. Ralph E. Ellis, CWO, W-2101191, 114 2nd St., San Antonio, Tex.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Says the senior medical officer of the camp who viewed victim's body believed he was beaten with either rifle butt, a pick handle, an iron pipe, or a shovel.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness to the extent of injuries inflicted on the body of the victim. Says it was stated "semi-officially" by the Japanese that the victim was missing from a work detail at the prison farm at the end of the working day. That a search was instituted for him, and that he was recaptured in flight. That summary punishment was administered on the spot, without trial or investigation.

6. Elton D. Winstead, Maj., O-351157, Rt. 1, Box 21, Wilson, N.C.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Confirms Japanese policy of requiring Ps of W. personnel to view body as an example of what could be expected if caught in an escape attempt. Corroborates extent of injuries. Gives name of victim as O'Connell instead of Connolly. Says Maj. Mori was Camp C.O.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Says victim tried to escape and did get away from the camp. He was found by the Japanese sitting on a bridge and made no attempt to evade capture. Was killed and body was returned to camp. Confirms extent of injuries and Japanese policy of having prisoner personnel view the body. Says camp C.O. at this time was Maj. Iwanaka.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Confirms the homicide and mutilation. Says victim had no trial.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Says United States P.o.W. caught escaping in a field near the Corral of Cabanas, says victim whose name witness does not know, was beaten to death by several of the Japanese guards, one whose name was Chin, at the point of capture. The beating lasted an hour.

    Signed and Sworn Statement. Was acquainted with the victim and was of the opinion Connolly was "mentally unbalanced". In of the firm opinion victim strayed away from his detail and did not have enough mentality to return unaided.
NOTES ON THE CASE

(Under this heading should be included the view taken as to (a) the degree of responsibility of the accused in view of his official position, e.g., was offence committed on the offender's own initiative, or in obedience to orders, or in carrying out a system approved by authority or a legal provision; (b) the probable defence; (c) whether the case appears to be reasonably complete.)

Accused Nos. 1 and 2, as Commanders of this Camp, must certainly have been put on notice by the mutilated conditions of this victim's body that he had been beaten and tortured. In addition, by forcing the other prisoners of war to view the victim's remains, they violated the most basic concepts of humane and civilized conduct.

Decision of Committee I:

[Blank space]

Date and place of commission of alleged crime.

Last Sunday of August, 1943.
Cabanatuan No. 1, Prisoner of War Camp, Luzon, Philippine Islands.

Number and description of crime in war crimes list.

Ill-treatment of Prisoners of War.
Breach of the Geneva Prisoners of War Convention 1929, Articles 2 and 46.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Accused struck the victim with his fist and bent him with a bamboo club for five minutes, without cause or justification.

Victim was in charge of 100 man detail which was returning to camp at 1130 hrs., on the date above-mentioned. Victim lined his men up to be counted by Javanese guard. The guard miscounted and blamed Col. Barr for having one man too many. Thereupon, the accused hit Col. Barr in the face twice with his fists, knocked him (victim) in a ditch, and beat him with a bamboo club for about five minutes. Victim was hospitalized because of this mistreatment and bore the "markings" thereof for three months.

WITNESS AND EVIDENCE.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. (Details and facts outlined on Page 2 hereof).

On or about 11 November, 1943, the victim was tied up and beaten by Japanese guards. He was marched out of the camp into the camp cemetery where he was shot and bayonetted to death. Victim was accused of robbing a store, although in fact, he had merely left the camp in order to purchase some canned goods and tobacco, and had paid for these articles. A notice of the Victim's execution was issued by the Japanese Commander of the camp.

WITNESS AND EVIDENCE

Statement. An eyewitness to the beating. Did not see the execution.
Saw victim marched out of camp toward cemetery. Had a copy of notice issued by Japanese concerning the execution. This notice buried with other records of witness at Cabanatuan.

This is a clear case of unlawful beating and murder. Even though the names of the Japanese guards are unknown, the accused, by issuing a notice of execution must be presumed to have had knowledge of and condoned the treatment accorded this victim.

A work detail was paired off and the P.o.W. were forced to beat each other about the face and head with their open hands for no apparent reason. Capt. Conrad was the odd man of the detail and so was ordered to stand facing the sun, at attention, for a period of about two hours.

Victims: Capt. Conrad of the 31st Infantry, and other unknown members of a work detail.

Although the names of the Japanese guards are unknown, the responsibility for their behavior rests with accused, their superior officer. This case goes even beyond the realm of "collective punishment" since "punishment" implies an offense or act committed by those punished; but here there was no reason for the "punishment".

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Victim was transferred by Accused No.1 to a different work detail, than the one to which assigned. When victim returned to camp, the United States Sergeant in charge of the regular work detail was being beaten because of victim's absence. Victim identified himself as the "missing" man and was beaten and knocked down by the accused with bamboo clubs.

While preparing to go out on a regular work detail, victim was taken out of his regular work detail and assigned to a different crew by direct order of "Beetle Brain". Some three hours later when the victim returned to camp from this special detail, his regular crew had been waiting the entire time because they were missing one man. At the time of victim's return, the Japanese guards were beating the United States Sergeant in charge of the crew. Victim volunteered the information that he was the missing one of the crew, the three accused thereupon began to beat him, the victim with bamboo clubs, knocking him down and beating him. Victim was beaten so severely that he bled internally for two months.

United States Sergeant name unknown.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Accused directed a number of Japanese guards to beat the victim with clubs and rifle butts. The beating lasted for fifteen minutes.

TRANSMITTED BY
One day, at roll call, before the noonday meal, the victim was missing from the formation and later was found to be lying down at one of the camp dispensaries. The victim was brought out into the field where the formation was held and ten to fifteen Japanese guards beat the victim with clubs and rifle butts under the accused's direction. The sentries also used their feet on the victim. When the victim would be beaten down, he was forced to rise. The beating lasted some fifteen minutes and then the victim was carried into the dispensary. The victim later recovered and sometime afterwards he was taken to Japan.

Victims were given permission by the Japanese sergeant in charge of this detail to rest. Accused found them resting and beat them with a club.

Source: War Crimes Office, Washington, (Case No. 40-354).
Victims were transporting cucumbers from the field where they were gathered by other Ps. of W. The Japanese sergeant in charge of this work gave his detail a fifteen minute rest period and allowed them to eat what cucumbers they desired. At this particular time the victims were not in the field but had gone with a load of cucumbers. When they returned, the rest of the detail had resumed work, but the four men were told that they also could rest for a fifteen minute period and eat what cucumbers they desired. The Japanese sergeant then went to some other part of the farm. The accused, a regular guard, saw these men resting and he beat all four with a hard wood stick approximately three or four feet long carved in the shape of a saber. Finally, accused struck the victim, Barber, in the face with a cucumber which was rotten. Then he forced Barber to eat a portion of this rotten cucumber, which made Barber violently ill. Cucumbers in the islands grow to the size and shape of a baseball bat.

This offense probably originated with accused on his own initiative; however there can be no question but that he was also carrying out a system of brutality approved by authority at the camp.

TRANSMITTED BY

*Insert serial number under which the case is registered in the files of the National Office of the accusing State.
A detail of Japanese soldiers under the command of the accused, took the two victims to an out-door oven in the rear of the guard house. After talking to each one separately, each victim in turn was held for a time very close to the fire under this oven. Again, the guards held some conversation with their victims, then threw each of them to the ground and forced a water hose down their throats. When enough water had been forced down their throats, the Japanese turned the Filipinos over on their stomachs and proceeded to jump up and down on their backs. This treatment went on every day for a week and then the victims were never seen again. Sgt. Okabo bragged to witness that he and Sgt. Ita were in charge of the torture of the two Filipinos and that they were tortured because one of them had failed to salute a Japanese guard and had refused to get down on his knees and beg forgiveness.

Victims: Two unknown Filipino Civilians.

This victim slowly wasted away and died from pellagra and other complicating diseases as a result of starvation and lack of proper nutrition. When disease had ravaged his body, medical care was not administered. The only medicine furnished by the authorities in this camp was a pitifully small amount of quinine which could almost be said to have itself been nonexistent.

The chief cause of death in this camp was starvation. The death rate ranged from 50 United States Prisoners of War a day in June 1942 to an average of 18 a day in October, tapering off only because at the latter date most of the weaker men were already dead. Although the Japanese maintained there was no food available, there is ample evidence that there was an abundance of food available in the Philippines at this time. High Japanese officers regularly inspected this camp and knew of the conditions which existed there but deliberately ignored them. Ill-treatment of prisoners of War.

References to relevant provisions of national law.
Breach of the Geneva Prisoners of War Convention, 1929, Articles 2 and 46.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Victim, a United States army Major, was in charge of a work detail at this camp. Because victim tried to stop a guard from beating some of the prisoners of war, the guard turned upon the victim. When the victim offered to defend himself, this guard rounded up accused Nos. 2, 3 and 4 and all four then beat the victim mercilessly.

TRANSMITTED BY...
PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME

Victim, as a member of a working party on the Camp Farm, was engaged in turning over some dirt with shovels as well as being in charge of the working party. Each of the three accused, Nos. 2, 3 and 4 in turn gave instructions to the victim as to how the work was to be done. Each time the victim followed instructions and changed the work in accordance with instructions given. Finally a fourth guard came along and told the victim to turn the dirt over still another way. Losing patience, the victim told this fourth guard, whose name is unknown, that he wished they would make up their damned minds as to how they wanted the dirt turned over. However, the victim instructed his men for the fourth time as the guard had said. The working party was too slow in carrying out this last order and the guard took a club and struck some six of the men. The victim told the guard to stop beating the men as they were doing the best they could. Thereupon the guard advanced on the victim as if to strike him and the victim said, "You little bastard, you hit me with that stick and I'll punch you in the nose". The guard became afraid and went off rounded up the three accused Nos. 2, 3 and 4, and all four returned and proceeded to beat their victim with hoe-handle clubs. After they had beaten their victim to the ground, they stomped and kicked him in the head, ribs, and testicles. The victim was unconscious when carried to the hospital, He was forced to work the next day.

Victim: A United States Major - Name unknown.
NOTES ON THE CASE

(Under this heading should be included the view taken as to (a) the degree of responsibility of the accused in view of his official position, e.g., was offence committed on the offender's own initiative, or in obedience to orders, or in carrying out a system approved by authority or a legal provision; (b) the probable defence; (c) whether the case appears to be reasonably complete.)

Brutalities were tolerated at this camp by its commanding officers. Accused No. 1 as commanding officer must be held responsible in this case.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Victim, a Filipino woman, was tied up by guards at this camp and left lying the entire day in the sun in the prison camp yard near the guard house.

Source: War Crimes Office, Washington, (Case No.40-903).
Early in the morning of 15 December 1944 a group of prisoners at Cabanatuan, going out of camp on a work detail, saw the victim tied up and lying in the sun in the yard near the guard house. When the detail returned to camp in the evening of that same day, the victim was still lying in the yard. It was rumored that the victim was picked up by the Japanese at Cabu Barrio and she was accused of refusing to give information concerning guerrilla activity in that area. It is not known what later became of the victim.

Victim: An unknown Filipino woman about 50 or 60 years of age.

Victims were members of the farm detail engaged in picking weeds along one of the farm roads. They were talking and joking, when Accused No.2, a Japanese guard who at the time was talking with the officer in charge of the detail, heard them. Accused No.2 walked up to the two victims and shouted at them to stand up. He then proceeded to beat each of the victims in turn with a flat bamboo stick which he had procured as he approached the two victims. He confined his blows with this stick to both sides of the face. Approximately a five minute beating of the face was administered to each man by this accused. Each victim suffered lacerations of both cheeks and multiple contusions.

Victim was a member of a work detail engaged in leveling a field. Accused No.2 shouted an order apparently at the whole detail in Japanese. Since no one understood, the detail kept on working. This accused then pointed at the victim and beckoned him to step out from the rest of the detail. When this was done, he took a pick axe from the hands of his victim and ordered the said victim to kneel. Accused No.2 thereupon reversed the pick axe in his hands, and holding on to the head of the pick axe, shoved his victim over backwards. When the victim sat up straight again, the accused proceeded to kick him in the chest and stomach and then beat the victim some six or seven blows over the head with the pick axe handle. Victim complained of headache two or three days after the beating.

Victim was a member of a working detail engaged in pitchforking compost from a pile in the field to be used for fertilizer. Accused No. 2 was on the compost pile beside his victim. As usual, he carried a club fashioned from a pick handle, lashed to his wrist with a leather thong. For no apparent reason, the accused started beating his victim over the head, with his club until the said victim rolled off the compost pile unconscious. No prisoner or anyone else was allowed to help the victim and after fifteen or twenty minutes the victim revived and went back to work. Victim complained of being ill for several days.

The chief cause of death in this camp was starvation. The death rate ranged from 30 United States Prisoners of War a day in June 1942 to an average of 18 a day in October, tapering off only because at the latter date most of the weaker men were already dead. Although the Japanese maintained there was no food available, there is ample evidence that there was an abundance of food available in the Philippines at this time. High Japanese officers regularly inspected this camp and knew of the conditions which existed there but deliberately ignored them. Accused No.1 was the Commanding General of Japanese forces in the Philippine Islands at this time; Accused No.2 was the officer in charge of all Prisoner of War Camps in the Philippines at this time, and Accused No.3 was another high authority in Prisoner of War administration at the time. Consequently, all three must be charged with responsibility for the conditions at this camp which resulted in the death of this and countless other victims.

   and that no one ever received any Red Cross packages.
NOTES ON THE CASE

(Under this heading should be included the view taken as to (a) the degree of responsibility of the accused in view of his official position, e.g., was offence committed on the offender's own initiative, or in obedience to orders, or in carrying out a system approved by authority or a legal provision; (b) the probable defence; (c) whether the case appears to be reasonably complete.)

The chief cause of death in this camp was starvation. The death rate ranged from 30 United States Prisoners of War a day in June 1942 to an average of 18 a day in October, tapering off only because at the latter date most of the weaker men were already dead. Although the Japanese maintained there was no food available, there is ample evidence that there was an abundance of food available in the Philippines at this time. High Japanese officers regularly inspected this camp and knew of the conditions which existed there but deliberately ignored them. Accused No. 1 was the Commanding General of Japanese forces in the Philippine Islands at this time; Accused No. 2 was the officer in charge of all Prisoner of War Camps in the Philippines at this time, and Accused No. 3 was another high authority in Prisoner of War administration at the time. Consequently, all three must be charged with responsibility for the conditions at this camp which resulted in the death of this and countless other victims.

UNITED STATES WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

CHARGES AGAINST JAPANESE WAR CRIMINALS

CASE No. 137 J

Name of accused, his rank and unit, or official position.

6. 2nd Lt. S. Konichi, Japanese Army.

Date and place of commission of alleged crime.

July 1942.
Cabanatuan No. 1, Prisoner of War Camp, Luzon, Philippine Islands.

Number and description of crime in war crimes list.

a. Ill-treatment of Prisoners of War.
b. Murder.
b. Breach of the Laws and Customs of War.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Although victim was afflicted with beri-beri, proper medical care and treatment was not given to him with the result that he died.

TRANSMITTED BY

* Insert serial number under which the case is registered in the files of the National Office of the accusing State.
Victim contracted beri-beri which grew progressively worse. He was never taken to the hospital and received very superficial treatment at the Camp Dispensary. He was given light duty around the barracks when he was first affected with the disease and continued to perform these duties until the day of his death.

Victim: Sgt. John A. Mills - 27th Bomber Sq., AAF.
WITNESS AND EVIDENCE.

1. Charles E. Buchanan, CPL., 7008225, 2426 Washington St., Vicksburg, Miss.
   Signed and sworn statement.
   Personal friend of deceased and a member of victim's burial detail.
   Shared the same platform bed with deceased. Was told by deceased and by a POW Doctor that deceased had beri-beri. The doctor told witness that beri-beri was the cause of deceased's death.
NOTES ON THE CASE

Medical evidence will corroborate symptoms of beri-beri and the fact that if not treated and allowed to progress, it will ultimately cause death. Lack of proper nutrition and starvation diets were notorious at this camp. The chief cause of death in this camp was starvation. The death rate ranged from 30 United States Prisoners of War a day in June 1942 to an average of 18 a day in October, tapering off only because at the latter date most of the weaker men were already dead. PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME

Victim and a number of unknown Ps. of W. were taken to the hospital where accused used them as "guinea pigs" in experimenting for a cure for beri-beri. Victim and others were subjected to numerous spinal taps and blood tests. Each victim was given a different medicine. Victim received injections of Vitamin B-1, which were of some help; others whose injections failed to benefit them were given no medical treatment at all after the experiment ended some six months later.

Victim: T/Sgt. Euclid A. Johnson, ASN - 15044803
PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

WITNESS AND EVIDENCE.

1. Euclid A. Johnson, T/Sgt., 1504483, 915 Clay St., Paducah, Ky.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness account of victim. Witness does not know any names of his fellow victims of this experiment.
NOTES ON THE CASE

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.
Victim's eyesight failed progressively from time he was made a prisoner of war, finally resulting in blindness in his left eye and near blindness in his right eye. Lack of proper nutrition and subsequent lack of medical care were the causes of victim's condition.

TRANSMITTED BY

* Insert serial number under which the case is registered in the files of the National Office of the accusing State.
From the time the victim was made a prisoner of war, his eyesight began to fail. This condition grew progressively worse until the beginning of 1944 when he lost the sight of his left eye completely. The sight of his right eye is greatly affected even now. The second lieutenant medical officer at the camp examined victim's eyes, but did not treat him. The only treatment afforded victim was five (5) injections of vitamin B-1 administered by United States medical Pus. of A. who told victim that the cause of his blindness was malnutrition. Accused No. 4 was commander of this camp and accused Nos. 5 and 6 were responsible officers at the camp at the time of offence.

Case No. 142 J

short statement of facts.

Accused No. 2 punched victim repeatedly, knocked him down and kicked him, all without provocation or justification.

transmitted by......
At about 10 o'clock one morning in March 1944, a group of prisoners were working on a watering detail. The prisoners in this group were organized in a line carrying buckets of water from the creek to water the vegetables. Work was halted for about ten minutes and as the prisoners were reforming to resume work, the victim knelt momentarily to adjust his shoe. The Japanese guard in charge, known as "Caribou" saw the prisoner and immediately went over and struck the victim in the face and abdomen with his fist. The victim got to his feet, stood at attention whenupon "Caribou" knocked him down and kicked him. This was repeated three or four times. As a result, the victim's face became swollen and discolored. He had a black eye, a lump on his jaw and multiple bruises. He later stated that no bones were broken.

JAPANESE WAR CRIMINALS

CASE No. 145 J

| Name of accused, his rank and unit, or official position. | 1. Col. Mori, Japanese Army, Commander of Cabanatuan No.1, Prisoner of War Camp, Luzon, Philippine Islands. |
| Date and place of commission of alleged crime. | 30 May 1942, Cabanatuan No.3, Prisoner of War Camp, Luzon, Philippine Islands. |
| Number and description of crime in war crimes list. | a. Ill-treatment of Prisoners of War. |

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Victims attempted to escape and were recaptured. They were then tortured, beaten, and summarily executed.

TRANSMITTED BY
The four victims attempted an escape from Cabanatuan No. 3 on or about 28 May 1942. They were recaptured and returned to Camp No. 3 by a Japanese patrol, on 29 May 1942. As punishment, they were trussed up in a sitting or squatting position with a pole or a 2 x 4 timber under their knees and tied to posts. They were beaten continuously and kept in the hot sun without hats, and with no food or water. On 30 May they were untied and led to graves, which some witnesses said they had to dig themselves. They were then shot to death. The witness Pittman says Colonel Mori led execution squad and himself gave mercy shot to victims. Pittman may be confused on this point in view of statements of Captain Foley and Cpl. Durmis, who identify by description the Japanese Lieutenant who actually carried out the execution.

PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

1. D.J. Olinger, k/c, 19056665.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Witness personally acquainted with all four victims as members of his battery for approximately a year.
   Knows that victims had planned escape and tried to discourage them.
   Says they were tortured 24 hours and then shot. Places date of occurrence on 30 May 1942. This is definitely an eye-witness account of what transpired and after giving details of torture, says all four were forced to dig their own graves. Says a Japanese NCO or officer was in charge of the execution squad. A mercy, shot was given each man as he lay in his grave. Considerable weight should be given to this testimony.

2. James B. Ha Carthy, Chief Yeoman
   True copy of news item from NY Times. Corroborates Olinger in essential detail.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness to torture and execution. Says firing squad composed of regular Army (Japanese) personnel. Says Captain Motoki interrogated victims. Further states victims were picked up in a village about 25 kilometers away.

4. Volnie S. Burke, S/Sgt. 6259972. 1201 First St., Graham, Texas.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness to torture. Says Col. Mori called Lt. Col. Boodrow, U.S. Army and told him that victims would be given mild punishment, but instead they were executed.

5. Fern J. Berta, Lt 1/05th. 312 So. 4th East St., Salt Lake City, Utah.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness to torture and heard reports of rifles of execution squad merely corroborative.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness to execution. Says Colonel Mori participated in the execution by giving the orders and by firing the mercy shot. Says Japanese gave the reason for execution as attempted escape. Says the four victims were outside the camp in search of food and when they were marching down the road and met a detail of returning United States prisoners of war, they surrendered immediately to the Japanese guards of the detail.

7. Darnell W. Kadolph, Sgt.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness to torture and execution. Says torture lasted about 36 hours.

8. Benton Foley, Capt. 0-99077. 17 Hillcrest Dr., San Rafael, Calif.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness to torture which he says lasted about 20½ hours. Says no water or food given prisoners. Says that one of victims would lapse into unconsciousness he would be revived by slapping and a little water. Watched torture from his barracks throughout the night.
   Barracks about 35 ft. from point where victims were bound. Says Japanese platoon comprised the execution squad. Believes Mori was in command of the squad. Confirms the fact that there was some sort of trial but says victims were not allowed to put up any defense.

9. Andrew T. Burnia Col. 7026706. Box 103, Walnut Street, Westmoreland
   City, Pennsylvania.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness to torture. Gives detailed account of beating of victims and the manner in which they were tied up. Names "Cross Eyes" as Japanese guard who actually tied the victims up and gives good physical characteristics of the Japanese Lieutenant in charge of firing squad and who administered the mercy shot.
NOTES ON THE CASE

This is a clear case of unlawful beating, torture, and killing. All three accused have been identified with these crimes and carried out a system repeatedly approved by higher Japanese authority.

The five victims were tied up with a piece of wood behind the knee joint, their arms brought back and up and tied to their upper arms with baling wire. They were brused in this manner for at least a day and night. No food or water was given them and they were beaten by the Japanese guards. These guards would drink water in front of them and pour what they did not want on the ground. The victims were beaten about the face and body with bamboo sticks. After undergoing this torture all five were taken to a place inside the camp where a large five-man grave had been dug. They were made to stand in this grave and were executed by a firing squad of twelve Japanese soldiers. All men were not killed after the first volley; and some were shot again as they attempted to crawl out of their grave.

Victims:
- Pvt. Bilhart of Btry. E., 59th CA
- Two unknown Pows of the 31st Infantry Regt.
- One unknown Pof War of the 24th Pursuit Sq.
- One unknown Pof War.
1. William K. Smith, Jr., Capt. 19020921, Box 357, Red Bay, Alabama. Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness account. Says the reason why these men were tortured and executed was that they had stolen arms and ammunition and had hidden them. That while on a working detail, they had escaped and were gone about three days before they were recaptured. Saw the execution and was on the detail to help cover over the grave.

2. John E. Carville, Srgt., 6268220, 301 Norton St., Corpus Christi, Texas. Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness account as to torture and execution. Says men were tied to a shed inside of the camp. This could have been the Japanese Headquarters referred to. Says he saw men forced to remain in a kneeling position with the wood block on the calves of their legs, so that when they sat because of fatigue, they cut off all circulation. Says that all testimony as to reason for execution was told to him. This version is slightly different from the witness Smith’s but not inconsistent with it.

Breach of the Geneva Prisoners of War Convention 1929,
Article 2 and 46.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Accused No. 2 beat and slapped victim and subjected him to slappings by fellow prisoners, all without justification.

TRANSMITTED BY

Date of receipt in Secretariat.
1 JAN 1946

(For the Use of the Secretariat)
PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME

Victim was a member of a work detail on the camp Prison Farm. About noon the bell rang for the details to come to the main gate to be counted. As this was victim's first time on this detail or on this type of work, and as the group was strange to him, he became confused and got in the wrong group. When he found out his error he went immediately to the right group, arriving some two minutes late. The situation was explained to Accused No.2 by a United States Officer who spoke Japanese. This failed to satisfy the Japanese guard who struck the victim twice across the back with a stick. Then the accused ordered a United States Major (POW) to slap the victim face three times. Finally the accused ordered 25 POW members of the same detail to slap the victim. When the Japanese guard thought certain of the POWs did not slap the victim hard enough, he demonstrated on the victim how he wanted it done. The victim received approximately fifty slaps on the left side of his face and suffered a swollen jaw for two days as a result.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Victims, who escaped and were recaptured, were beheaded upon the orders of accused No.1. These orders were concurred in by accused Nos.2 and 3.

TRANSMITTED BY...
Victims were led before a large group of Filipino POWs. It is believed that the offense for which these victims were executed was escape from the camp. Victims were beheaded. While the actual perpetrator of the murder is unknown, the order given by Captain Nakamura for the execution is sufficient to connect him as a principal. The other two accused by their position in the camp at Cabanatuan No.3, are accessories to the fact by reason of their concurrence in the order of their superior.

_Victims:_ Three Filipinos.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Victims, internees, were confined in this jail under abominable and unsanitary conditions, in violation of Laws and Customs of War as well as the Geneva Prisoners of War Convention of 1929, which the Japanese government agreed to apply to civilian internees. The Accused was in charge of this jail at the time.

At the Naga Provincial Jail Mc Sorley and seven other internees were confined in inadequate and cramped quarters, barely large enough to accommodate the cots on which they slept. The doors of the quarters were locked most of the time during a sixty day period. The cell was directly over a cess pool; the cots were vermin-infested, and the toilet facilities were inadequate.

Victims: Richard T. Mc Sorley and other internees.

While working on a rope detail, Major Harrison attempted to escape. He grabbed the guard's rifle. The rifle was not loaded and Harrison was seized and taken to the guardhouse where he was beaten. His screams were heard throughout the night. The following day the Japanese commandant stated that Harrison died as a result of wounds received while struggling with the guards during his re-capture. Witnesses state that Harrison was not seriously injured when apprehended.

Victim: Major Charles P. Harrison.
PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

1. Robert D. Johnston, Columbus, Georgia. Signed and Sworn Statement. States that Harrison was tied and beaten when first recaptured; later heard him screaming in the guardhouse.

2. George W. Greene. States that the guards commenced beating Harrison immediately after his apprehension. Heard screams from the guardhouse during the rest of the day and night. Says the Japanese commandant, stated next evening that Harrison died as a result of the wounds received in the scuffle when he was first recaptured.

3. Raymond H. Knap. 259 Genesee St., San Antonio, Texas. Signed and Sworn Statement. Says the incident occurred in March 1944. Says Harrison was uninjured when first recaptured and that Major Yamasaki, Japanese Commandant, a week later informed them that Harrison died of wounds received in being recaptured.

5. Charles E. Keven, 118 Hudson St., Ithaca, N.Y. Signed and Sworn Statement. Says that there was no one other than Harrison in the guardhouse and that he heard the screams coming from the guardhouse.

WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE:

1. Robert D. Johnston, Columbus, Georgia.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. States that Harrison was tied and beaten when first recaptured; later heard him screaming in the guardhouse.

2. George W. Greene.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Several men suffering severely from beri-beri and malaria were sent to work on a cold and rainy day in the rice fields. They were unable to work because of their condition and were required to stand at attention in the rain all day. Major Jackson explained to the guard, Accused No.2, that the men were in no condition to work and should not be required to stand in the rain. This infuriated the guard, and he proceeded to slap Major Jackson "around a bit". Accused No.1 condoned brutality on the part of his guards.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

An unidentified United States lieutenant was struck by Nishimura with a heavy walking stick, rendering the victim unconscious for about three hours. It was later learned that he suffered a fractured skull as a result of the blow. Nishimura claimed that the lieutenant was not working hard enough. Accused Nos. 1 and 2 not only knew of beatings by their subordinates but actually participated in most of them.

UNITED STATES CHARGES AGAINST JAPANESE WAR CRIMINALS

CASE No. 171 J

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

The two victims escaped from the Malaybalay Prisoner of War Camp and were recaptured. They were tied within view of the Filipino section of the camp for a period of time, then executed by a firing squad while standing in front of open graves. Accused was Commanding Officer of the camp and the crime took place with his full sanction.

Victims: Sergeant Siascio and one unidentified Filipino, both members of the 101st Infantry Division, Philippine Army.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. States the execution occurred between August and October 1942.

   Signed and Sworn Statement. Eyewitness. Gives date as about July 1942. States that the victims were tied for several days in view of the Filipino camp. Says that the Japanese squad fired at least three rounds each and that it appeared there was a deliberate purpose to delay the death of the victims.

3. Enoch J. Kennedy.
   Gives date as 15 August 1942. Was told by others who witnessed the execution that the two men appeared to have been badly beaten prior to the execution. Names Major Mori as C.O., reported to be the nephew of Col. Mori of Subanutan.

1. About 3 July 1942.
2. Camp Keithley, Mindanao, Philippine Islands.

Number and description of crime in war crimes list.

1. Murder.
2. Ill-treatment of Prisoners of War.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Four enlisted men, prisoners of war, escaped from Camp Keithley. The Japanese executed the three victims, who were in command over the escapees, in reprisal for the escape. The victims were first tied to posts and used for bayonet practice by the Japanese. Accused was in command of the Japanese who perpetrated this atrocious crime.

Victims:

- Lieutenant Colonel Robert H. Vesey.
- Captain J. Price.
- First Sergeant John Chandler.

Source: War Crimes Office, Washington (Case No. 46-17).
WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE.

1. Charles H. Wyatt, Major.
Saw the victims being led away; did not see the actual execution; was told by natives and Japanese guards that the men were tied to posts and bayoneted; later saw the posts and the graves. Names Captain Osawa as responsible.

2. Donald G. Hargre, 30 Highland Ave., Watertown, Conn.
Saw the victims led to a place 500 yards away and tied to posts which the Japanese used during bayonet practice. Did not see the actual execution because of the crowd of Japanese at the scene.

3. Mrs. Helen A. Lane, 3223 N. 4th St., Minneapolis, Minn.
Signed and Sworn Statement. Saw the victims being led away and shortly afterwards heard the yelling and shouting which usually preceded the standard Japanese bayonet practice. Later heard that the men had been blindfolded and bayoneted.

4. Ada Clarke, 462 Washington St., Forrestville, Conn.
Signed and Sworn Statement. Was less than 100 yards away from the scene. Saw the victims being led away blindfolded. Japanese soldiers obstructed the view, but heard the characteristic Japanese bayonet-drill scream at the moment of the executions.

WAR CRIMINALS

CASE NO. 175 J.

Name of accused, his rank and unit, or official position.

1. General Morimoto, Japanese Army, Commanding Officer of Internment Camps in the Philippines.

2. Officers and crew of Japanese transport, names unknown at present time.

Date and place of commission of alleged crime.

23 to 28 August 1942.

On board ship enroute from Impalutan, Mindanao, to Davao,

Mindanao, Philippine Islands.

Number and description of crime in war crimes list.

a. Internment of civilians under inhuman conditions.

b. Ill-treatment of internees (by analogy).

c. Breach of the Laws and Customs of War.

d. Breach of the Geneva Prisoners of War Convention 1929,

Articles 2 and 13.

References to relevant provisions of national law.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Victims, internees, were crowded into a vessel under abominable and unsanitary conditions and were kept on a starvation diet during the trip from one camp to another. Such treatment constitutes a violation of the Laws and Customs of "war as well as of the Geneva Prisoners of War Convention 1929, which the Japanese government agreed to apply to civilian internees. Accused No. 1 was in charge of all prisoner of war and internment camps in the Philippine Islands and knew of the treatment being accorded internees and the conditions under which they were forced to exist.

Victims were forced to sleep shoulder to shoulder on open unprotected deck without bedding. The ship was very filthy, not having been cleaned for some time. Small amount of rice was furnished each day (internees themselves had to furnish the rest of their food). Small amount of water, not over a cup a day was permitted the victims. There was one toilet for both men and women and no toilet paper. Japanese refused to designate ship as carrying internees, under Red Cross regulations, as protection against enemy attack.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Accused No.2 tied victim to a post and then all the accused beat victim with bamboo clubs. The beatings lasted from 10 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock at night. He was left tied to another post overnight and shortly thereafter died as a result of these beatings and treatment.

PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME

The victim, despite the refusal of permission, went to the latrine at Nichols Field and was caught there by the accused guard, "Wilbur". "Wilbur" tied victim to a post, whereupon each of the accused persons proceeded to beat the victim with bamboo clubs. The beatings were intermittent, about every half hour from approximately 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. During this time, no food or water was given to the victim. At approximately 6 p.m., the victim, who was unconscious, was returned to Camp No.4, and again tied to a post in a standing position where he remained all night. The next morning he appeared "nearly dead". He did not join the work detail and he was last seen unconscious, tied to a post as aforesaid. A Major Brass, a United States prisoner, stated several days later that "Cherry Blossom" had forced him to sign a death certificate stating that Hinkle had died of beri-beri.

When the regular work detail at Nichols Field returned for dinner, they observed the victim tied to a post near the mess shack, and were advised that he had been too weak to work and had been brought there for disposal. The prisoners were told they could not have their lunch until the "show" was over. A Japanese civilian, the accused "Misereson", untied the semi-conscious victim who fell to the ground. All of the accused persons beat the victim with bamboo sticks and rifle buts for about one half hour. They administered the Japanese water treatments by putting the hose in the unconscious victim's mouth and forcing water into his stomach. The victim was again beaten. The following night the body of the victim was brought out on a stretcher and laid in a room at the Panay School. A Major Brest, United States Army Medical Corps, examined him and pronounced him dead and stated the cause of death to be the beating of the day before.

The victim attempted to escape from Nichols Field, but was captured and returned. He was beaten from head to foot, and tied to a post for 4.8 hours. During this time, he was hit and kicked by the Japanese guards. The Japanese in charge of the camp, "Wolf", also brutally kicked him. When the soldier became unconscious, he was removed from the Field, and never returned. Another guard who had struck this prisoner was a Japanese known as "Pistol Pete". It was rumored that the victim was taken to Bilibid where he was shot and buried. A coffin was buried which the Japanese said contained his body, but United States Medical Officers were not permitted to examine the coffin.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

While United States Prisoners of War were being marched from Pasay Intermediate Prison to Nichols Field, a Filipino civilian waved to the victim. The Japanese guards severely beat the Filipino civilian, until he indicated to whom he was waving. The Japanese Guards in charge of Accused No.1 then severely beat the victim with hoe handles until he was bleeding profusely. The victim, convinced the Japanese guards that he was not acquainted with the Filipino, whereupon, the Japanese again beat the Filipino into unconsciousness, and continued beating him intermittently all day long.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

At a time when the Japanese were returning United States prisoners from a work detail, the victim had become unconscious from heat, prostration and malnutrition. When the work detail was mustered, it was found that he was missing. As a search was being conducted for him, the victim straggled up to the group. The Japanese guards claimed he was trying to escape, and accordingly they shot and killed him. Accused No.1 was in charge of this camp at the time and he not only condoned the commission of like crimes by his subordinates but actually participated in or committed many of them himself.

United States Prisoners of War working at Nichols Field were required to excavate through a hill in such a manner as to leave overhanging banks where they were working. In June of 1943, the overhanging banks caved in and buried the victim Newman. He was dead upon being dug out. In August, 1943, there was a similar cave-in, and another United States Prisoner of War was buried and died.

Prisoners of war, including victims, were compelled to work on Nichols Field, a known military installation. The United States Government repeatedly protested to the Japanese Government against the use of prisoners of war labor on any work having direct relation with war operations. The work at the instant project was so dangerous that it caused the death of two prisoners of war. Both accused must be charged with responsibility for these violations which could not have escaped their attention, since all camps were regularly visited and inspected by high Japanese Officers who knew of and sanctioned the ill-treatment of all prisoners of war.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Accused beat the victim on his head and body about forty times with a leather belt, without justification. Accused was at the time commander of this camp and cruelty by him indicates the callous attitude of all Japanese personnel at these camps, both officials as well as their subordinates, all of whom participated in unwarranted and unlawful beatings of prisoners of war.

Victim: Cpl. Lee Bennett.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Prisoners of war were forced to perform labor in transporting arms and munitions and material intended for Japanese combatant units. Prisoners from a hospital were forced to perform labor and all prisoners were subjected to danger and air raids. Prisoners were forced to labor seven days a week without any rest days.

TRANSMITTED BY

Insert serial number under which the case is registered in the files of the National Office of the accusing State.
During the period from about June 1942 to October 1944, prisoners of war from various camps in the vicinity of Manila, such as Dilbilid, Fort McKinley and Camp Murphy were forced to load and unload ammunition, bombs, military equipment and gasoline on and off ships. In addition, one named hospital ship, the "Seattle Maru" and several unnamed hospital ships were loaded with munitions both by prisoners of war and by the Japanese. The number of prisoners in this detail varied; as many as 250 men were reported to be on this detail during July and August 1944; at other times there were as few as 10 men. During the latter part of 1944 prisoners on this detail were exposed to air raids by American planes. It is not known for certain whether any casualties resulted from these raids. In addition to loading ships, groups of prisoners were required to drive trucks from the dock to ammunition and gasoline dumps.
PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE

1. Sanford Jack Blau, T/5, ASN 10300261, 3522 Raymond Ave., University Heights, Ohio. Signed and Sworn Statement. Victim. Forced to load ships for about two months during June-July 1942. Says he helped load about twenty Red Cross ships with ammunition. This statement as to twenty Red Cross ships not confirmed by any other witness.

4. Charles E. Rice, 917, Osseo St., Manhattan, Kansas. Signed and Sworn Statement. An eyewitness to fact prisoners were forced to load ships.

6. Charles O. Foster, Major, ASN 0-511147, 717 Cherry St., Grand Forks, N. Dakota. Signed and Sworn Statement. Saw prisoners going to and from work during 1943 and 1944. Says victims required to work seven days a week.

7. John K. Pulp, T/Sgt, ASN 7000450, State Line, Mississipi. Signed and Sworn Statement. Victim. Worked on docks during 1944. States ships were loaded with gasoline, bombs, ammunition and aircraft parts for use against American troops in the Southern Philippine Islands.

10. Paul L. Ashton, Major '43, ASN 3377786, 1111 Vincentia St., Corona, Calif. Saw about 200 prisoners unloading military equipment from a Japanese ship during May or June 1945.

PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

1. Sanford Jack Blau, T/Sgt, ASI 10302661, 622 Raymond Ave., University Heights, Ohio. Signed and Sworn Statement. Victim. Forced to load ships for about two months during June-July 1942. Says he helped load about twenty Red Cross ships with ammunition. His statement as to twenty Red Cross ships not confirmed by any other witness.

4. Charles E. Rice, 217 W. 4th St., Manhattan, Kansas. Signed and Sworn Statement. An eyewitness to fact prisoners were forced to load ships.

6. Charles C. Foster, Major, ASI 0-314147, 717 Cherry St., Grand Forks, N. Dakota. Signed and Sworn Statement. Saw prisoners going to and from work during 1943 and 1944. Says victims required to work seven days a week.

9. Paul L. Ashton, Major MC, ASI 0-397788, 1114 Vincentia St., Corona, Calif. Saw about 200 prisoners unloading military equipment from a Japanese ship during May or June 1943.

11. Bruce H. Chester, Col., ASI 2084274, Sheridan, California. Signed and Sworn Statement. Did not unload ships but repaired trucks used to haul gasoline between the dumps and the dock. States Lt. Gia as being in charge of his detail.

NOTES ON THE CASE

(Under this heading should be included the view taken as to (a) the degree of responsibility of the accused in view of his official position, e.g., was offence committed on the offender's own initiative, or in obedience to orders, or in carrying out a system approved by authority or a legal provision; (b) the probable defence; (c) whether the case appears to be reasonably complete.)

The number of prisoners of war on this detail varied and personnel were constantly changing. It is not possible to state accurately how many prisoners of war were victims in this case but over a period of several years it is estimated that more than 1000 prisoners were utilized loading and unloading ships in the dock area.

Capt. Sugano and Lt. Oka were reported to be in charge of this detail at the Port Area. Capt. Noji is accused because Capt. Noji was in charge of Bilibid prison from which some of the work details were drawn. This is a case where properly the Japanese Commander in the Philippines and the Japanese High Command should be charged with responsibility, in addition to individual officers in charge of the work details. In view of the length of time over which this project extended the Japanese Commanders in the Philippines, General Homma, Lt. Gen. Kuroda and General Yamashita should be imputed with knowledge of these violations of the laws of war.

At Bacolod prisoners of war and internees were forced to live in filthy and vermin-infested cramped quarters. Although many suffered from dysentery and other ailments, no medical attention or supplies were furnished. For three or four months after 5 June 1942 the Japanese provided no food. The only food available was that which had been brought into the camp by the internees from their homes and that which they were able to buy from the Filipinos outside the prison. When, because of lack of funds, the internees were unable to buy supplies, the food furnished by the Japanese was inadequate, consisting of a small quantity of rice and scraps of fish. The internees were mistreated, and suffered many indignities at the hands of the guards. Prisoners of war were forced to drive trucks loaded with military supplies, which made them subject to attack by the guerrillas.

Victims: Approximately 150 United States' internees and prisoners of war.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Victim was one of the Prisoners of War included in the "Bataan Death March". While halted at Orani, Bataan (rest camp) on 14 April 1942, victim was singled out because of his knowledge of army tanks, and taken from Orani to Limay by a Japanese Officer (unidentified) for questioning concerning Corregidor and his willingness to serve the Japanese Army. He was imprisoned in a small room of a school house used by the Japanese as a field hospital and there, because of his refusal to cooperate, was beaten by the Japanese (unidentified) who used clubs, rifle butts and kicking in administering the beating. On 17 April 1942, three Japanese soldiers (unidentified) stripped victim of his clothing, beat him with clubs, tied him to a cot, and by means of a cord, one end of which was tied around his testicles and the other around a large rock, suspended the rock over the end of the cot, causing victim to subsequently lose consciousness. He does not know how long he remained in that tortured condition. On 19 April, after killing his Japanese guard, victim escaped. Victim: Richard Coordes Kadel, Major, 0-239912.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

On 11 April 1942, Bob A. Campbell, Sgt., and two other unidentified soldiers of the United States Army were captured and taken in custody by three unidentified enlisted personnel of the Japanese Army. Stopping at an official Japanese army automobile, one of the guards of victims engaged in conversation with one of the approximately five officers grouped around the automobile. During the conversation, Campbell was attacked by another enlisted member of the Japanese Army, not one of the three guards, who hit Campbell, with a rifle butt on the back of the head, kicked him and then thrust him in the right side of back and forehead with a bayonet. An officer stopped further beating. The three victims were led away and while being led away, were fired upon by the officers around the automobile using pistols, missing Campbell, but one of the other United States Prisoners of War with Campbell, name unknown, fell to the ground. Campbell did not examine him nor remain to learn if the United States Prisoner of War was struck by the firing.

Name of accused, his rank and unit, or official position.

1. Lt. SATO, Japanese Army.
2. Japanese Guards, names and ranks unknown.

Date and place of commission of alleged crime.

About 19 April 1942.
Guagua, Pampanga, Philippine Islands.

Number and description of crime in war crimes list.

Ill-treatment of Prisoners of War.

References to relevant provisions of national law.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

On or about 19 April 1942, at Guagua, Pampanga, victim was severely beaten by unidentified Japanese guards for failure of victim to report to work. Victim reportedly was too ill to board the work bus and this fact is assigned as the reason for his being beaten. It is also reported that victim died later the same day, but this has not been confirmed. Accused No. 1 was in command of work details at this location.

Victim: William Ivanhoe, Sgt.

PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

WITNESS AND EVIDENCE.

1. Joseph F. Boyland, Lt. 0-589192, 303 Pulaski St., Cumberland, Md.
   Statement. This witness was an eyewitness to the beating of victim. He states that when he returned later on of the day of the alleged beating he was asked by two young Filipino boys (unidentified) if he wanted to see where victim was buried. The witness was not permitted to visit the burial place. This information is all that appears in the file with reference to the death of victim.
NOTES ON THE CASE

(Under this heading should be included the view taken as to (a) the degree of responsibility of the accused in view of his official position, e.g., was offence committed on the offender's own initiative, or in obedience to orders, or in carrying out a system approved by authority or a legal provision; (b) the probable defence; (c) whether the case appears to be reasonably complete.)

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Corporal Snyder and Corporal Stacy were United States Prisoners of War who participated in the "Bataan Death March" in April 1942. While resting during an overnight stop at Balanga, Bataan, the Prisoners of War were given a handful of uncooked rice. Victims cooked their rice in a discarded Japanese mess kit found by victim Snyder. Upon finding this mess kit in the possession of victims, they were taken by an unidentified Japanese guard before Japanese officers and beaten severely.

CHARGES AGAINST

JAPANESE WAR CRIMINALS

CASE No. 276 J

Name of accused, his rank and unit, or official position:

2. Major Sakaguchi, Japanese Army,
3. Unidentified Japanese Officers responsible for the Prisoners of War and for conduct of the Bataan Campaign during April 1942.

Date and place of commission of alleged crime:

Between 7 April 1942 and 6 May 1942.
Bataan, Philippine Islands.

Number and description of crime in war crimes list:

a. Murder.
b. Ill-treatment of Prisoners of War.
c. Breach of the Laws and Customs of War.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

United States and Filipino Prisoners of War were deliberately exposed to danger while awaiting evacuation from the combat zone. Prisoners of War were also used to give protection, by their presence, from bombardment to certain regions in the combat zone.

* Insert serial number under which the case is registered in the files of the National Office of the accusing State.
United States and Filipino Prisoners of War, captured upon surrender of Bataan, were deliberately used to shield Japanese gun positions from United States fire from Corregidor, instead of being promptly evacuated or removed to a safe place as possible until evacuation could be made. In some instances the Japanese compelled the Prisoners of War to march back and forth in front of their positions. In other instances they were halted for rest stops in front of Japanese gun positions and in the line of fire. In still another instance, the Japanese placed their artillery in and around hospital areas and placed Prisoners of War in large groups around other batteries. As a result, Corregidor was compelled to withhold its fire, giving the Japanese time to set up positions. When it becomes impossible to longer hold fire many of the Prisoners of War were wounded and some killed by the fire of the combat zone.

b. Breach of the Laws and Customs of War.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

TRANSMITTED BY
In May 1942, between 200 and 300 United States prisoners of war were taken from Camp O'Donnell to Tayabas Province for the purpose of building a road. On a forced march from Cauaung to the road site, a distance of approximately 20 kilometers, the prisoners were forced to carry the equipment of the Japanese as well as their own. The march was so strenuous that 4 prisoners died on the way. Severe weather prevailed at the camp and the men were forced to live in the open in a creek bed without cover and worked in the rain and mud from daylight to dark. The prisoners were often beaten by the guards and death due to malaria, dysentery, pneumonia, and malnutrition were frequent. No medical supplies were furnished by the Japanese and the water supply was polluted. The ration consisted of a small quantity of rice which was prepared by cooking in an iron wheelbarrow with a fire built under it. The death rate rose to 3 or 4 men a day, and from mid-June to August from 65 to 70 men had died. The survivors were finally returned to Bilibid Prison Hospital in August 1942 because by that time there were but 14 men still able to continue the work. Accused Nos.1, 2 and 3 were officers in charge and Accused No.4 was one of the guards who participated in these atrocities.

Victims: Between 200 and 300 United States Prisoners of War.

Victims, members of the Camp Committee were placed in jail at Santo Tomas on 23 December 1944. Johnson was taken away 24 December 1944, and the others on 5 January 1945 by the Japanese Military Police, (referred to as Koppel). It was rumored the victims were shot and also that some were beheaded. After entry of the United States Army, the victims were traced to the Military Police sub-station at the former home of Dr. Roxas, and later on February 21, 1945, fourteen bodies, including 4 bodies identified as the victims herein were dug up in a field across the street from the Military Police sub-station. The bodies were identified by persons who had been at Santo Tomas, some of whom helped in the search for them after the liberation by the United States Army. The reason for the arrest, detention and execution is not established, though believed by some to be because of their communication with the "outside". The bodies when found were wired together in groups. After medical examination, the bodies were reburied at the East corner of the Seminary Building, University of Santo Tomas on 22 February 1945.

Victims: Carroll Calkins Grinnell - Chairman, Santo Tomas Camp Committee.
   Alfred Francis Duggleby
   Ernest Emil Johnson
   Clifford Lawrence Larsen
   Members of the Santo Tomas Camp Committee.
PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE.

5. O. A. Boni. Copy of signed statement of identification of Larsen's body.

8. Thomas W. Poole. Statement. Searched and ran down clues with Schelke and Lt. (jg) Johnson. With Lt. (jg) Johnson, Poole found the bodies and identified Grinnell's body.

10. Dr. Antonio Sison. Director, Philippine General Hospital, Manila, P.I. Reported to Poole that he was taken by Japanese Military Police and saw Johnson on 31 December 1944.

11. V. V. Clark, mining engineer and professor. Statement. States Grinnell and Duggleby and a dozen other United States internees taken from Santo Tomas Camp, led to a vacant lot and shot into a common grave.

NOTES ON THE CASE

Time of execution and death sufficiently established. Identification of victims sufficiently established. Accused not identified as to individuals but identified as to authority. Instrument used: No evidence thereof. Rumours only. Some say beheaded. Others say shot. Reasons for execution: No satisfactory explanatory evidence though rumored they were contacting outside with the Guerrillas and getting money into camp.

15. Mrs. Hilda Maria Gould, 301 East Lexington St., Elkhart, Indiana.
Statement. Was confined at Santo Tomas. States Grinnell, Duggleby and Larson, removed by Japanese, beaten and she never saw these three again. Names Lt. Abico as in charge of camp guard in 1944 and 1945 (believed now deceased), Lt. Shuraji (phonetic) as quartermaster, described as short, about 5' tall, heavy set, very bow-legged, about 32 years of age; also Mr. Onasaki (phonetic), Assistant Camp Commandant latter part of 1944 and early 1945, described as short, shrivelled up old man with handle bar moustache, wearing very heavy glasses.

Statement. States about 12 Japanese Military Police with 2 squads Japanese soldiers took the 4 victims from the camp, put them in jail. Does not say he witnessed this. Helped identify the bodies. Names Colonel Hayashi (phonetic) as Japanese Camp Commandant at time; Lt. Shuraji as Finance and Supply Officer of the Regular Japanese Army.

17. Earl Carroll.
Statement. According to Smith Carroll inquired in writing from Colonel Hayashi (phonetic), Commandant, as to what happened to the victims. Received no reply.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Shortly before Christmas 1944, a random search was conducted by the Japanese in effort to locate a 100 lb. sack of sugar allegedly stolen from the Japanese commissary. About 10 litters of sugar were found in victim's hut by Lt. Shuragi. Victim denied that it was any part of the allegedly stolen sugar, but was nevertheless ordered by Lt. Abico, who, with two other guards entered victim's hut shortly after the discovery of victim's sugar by Lt. Shuragi, to carry the sugar to the Camp Commandant's office. Here, Lt. Abico struck victim twice in the chest with his fist for victim's failure to answer a question. The sugar belonging to victim was retained by the Japanese authorities and Lt. Abico refused to return it to victim. Victim's wife was ill at time, and required to get out of bed and stand during the search for sugar in victim's hut. The sugar was necessary as a bargaining means to obtain milk required in the diet of victim's wife.

a. Torture of Civilians.
b. Ill-treatment of Civilian internees.

c. Breach of the Geneva Prisoners of War Convention 1929, Article 2.
d. Breach of the Laws and Customs of War.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Victim and his family fled to the hills around Manila at the outbreak of hostilities. He finally surrendered to the Japanese in March 1943, and was forced under threats of harm to his family to induce other Americans to surrender. He was unsuccessful in this and was taken to Los Banos where he was forced to work as "houseboy" for the Commandant and beaten from time to time. In August 1943 Spalding was permitted to visit his family in Manila for four days after which he returned to Los Banos and was never heard of again.

Victim: H.R. Spalding.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

About 800 male Prisoners of War and 12 United States Navy Nurses, were suddenly transported from Santo Tomas Internment Camp to Los Banos Internment Camp in overcrowded unsanitary box cars. No food or water was provided during the trip which lasted about five hours from 0800 or 0900 hours to 1300 or 1400 hours. From 60 to 70 people were loaded in each car, about the size of an American freight car, or about 30' x 8' as described by one victim. The ventilation was inadequate, causing some to become sick and others to faint from the stifling heat. No sanitation facilities were provided and the train was not stopped during the trip. The victims were not given an opportunity to prepare for the trip and many remained sick for a long period of time as a result of this inhuman treatment.

Victims: John J. Hunter; Lt. Helen Gorzelanski; Julian Wetcott Guillot; Herbert Kenneth Edwards; Fred J. Prasmore; George A. Goynes Jr; Nathaniel Walker White; Edward John Parrish, Jr; Morris Carl Scherer; and approximately 300 other unnamed Prisoners of War.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

While at Bilibid in July 1943, victim was accused of communicating with the outside (admittedly true), for which he was tried and placed in solitary confinement for 21 days on reduced rations of 3 small rice balls per day (about size of golf ball) and every third day ½ cube inches of soup in canteen cup. He lost 26 lbs. During the first three days, victim was beaten three different times. The first two beatings were administered by unidentified guard. The third, by an unnamed Sergeant of Guard. This latter beating reduced victim to a state of semi-consciousness. These beatings allegedly were inflicted to elicit from victim names of other prisoners communicating with the outside. Accused No.1 was aware of the cruelties perpetrated by his subordinates and sanctioned them.

Sometime between December 1943 and April 1944 a United States Marine by the name of Parker, first name unknown, described as being then about 26 years of age, 5'9" in height, brown hair and eyes, fair complexion, attempted to escape by crawling under a wire fence barrier. His escape was frustrated and for his attempted escape he was beaten by Japanese guards (unidentified), using rifle butts and sabers.

Parker, at the time he was being beaten, had his hands tied behind him. Later, on the same day, he was placed in Building No.9, Hospital Area, where he was seen the following day with his hands still tied and in a bloody and bruised condition. On the third day following the beating at about 0900 hours, Parker was taken away and was not seen again at Bilibid. Accused No.1 sanctioned brutalities on the part of his subordinates; Accused Nos 2 and 3 were directly in charge of the guards (Accused No.4) who actually beat the victim.

1. The non-commissioned officer who, as Sergeant of the Guard, had charge of the beating of the victim, is named as Suki Hari, whose Army title was Gun So. He is described as follows: About 35 years of age, about 5'9" height, 190 lbs. weight; 3 gold teeth in upper fore part of his mouth; blustering, loud talking, little education; also had a moustache.

2. The assistant, or Corporal of the Guard, is described as follows; About 26 years of age, 5'5" height; 150 lbs. weight; "dumpy" physique; several upper and lower gold teeth; arrogant and cruel. He was nicknamed "Elapay-Maxey" by the Prisoners of War.

3. Currently available information indicates that Captain Nogi was at the time of the offense herein the Commandant of Bilibid Prison Hospital. The commanding officer is described as follows: About 35 years of age, heavy build, 150 lbs., 5'4" height; no gold teeth, very large nose and was nicknamed "Button Nose."

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Joseph Edward Breuer, Jr., Pvt., was incarcerated in a cell along with several other unnamed prisoners. This cell was inadequately ventilated, had damp walls and sewage backed up on to the floor. This confinement continued during the period between 1 August and 10 November 1942. He was fed grass soup twice a week and a “little rice three times a day”, and was not afforded medical attention. This treatment was imposed for failure of victim to disclose to the Japanese which of the prisoners could operate radio range-finder equipment. Accused knew that prisoners of war were being treated in this fashion.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

On several occasions Prisoners of War were transferred from Bilibid to Cabanatuan, in small box cars, the number loaded into each ranging from 80 to 125, often with standing room only, no or little food, scanty water rations, inadequate or no sanitation facilities, for a trip lasting from 8 to 20 hours. Upon arrival at depot, the victims were forced to march 10 to 15 miles to prison camps, and those who fell out were severely beaten. The property of several was confiscated without receipt and others were robbed. Accused No.1 was aware of the conditions under which Prisoners of War were transported on these trips. The accused 1-4 below are the chief perpetrators:

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

During the course of questioning victim for information concerning the survivors of a sunken ship who were shot by guerrillas at Ilocos Norte in July 1942, the victim was beaten many times with a baseball bat from which he suffered three fractured ribs. The beatings were administered by a First Lieutenant in the Japanese Military Intelligence Service, name unknown, who had for an assistant a Lieutenant KAKUDA. These beatings occurred in the afternoons of 12, 13, and 14 September 1943, in a room next door to the American Personnel Office at Bilibid Prison Camp. On 2 October 1943, victim was hanged by the wrists and left suspended for eighteen hours at the G-2 Section, General Headquarters, Manila, Philippine Islands, and no food was given the victim during those 18 hours.

It is apparent that at least two separate offenses were committed, one, the beatings administered 12, 13, 14 September 1943, at Bilibid Prison Camp, and two, the suspension of victim by his wrists on 2 October 1943. Apparently, different accuseds are responsible for the latter than those responsible for the former. An unknown First Lieutenant of the Japanese Military Intelligence Service and his assistant, a Lt. Kado, are named by victim as responsible for the first beatings. Two unknown and unidentified investigators are named by victim as responsible for mistreatment on 2 October 1943.

In December 1944, there were 150 United States Prisoners of War at the Prisoners of War Camp at Puerto Princesa, working on Japanese airfields. There had been many air raids from 19 October 1944 on. On 14 December 1944, it is reported the Japanese had sighted a convoy and feared an attack. At any rate, about noon all hands were called in from work details and placed in the compound. There was an air raid alarm. About 2 p.m., two P-38's went over and then all Prisoners of War were compelled to get into the air raid shelters. These were three large shelters and several foxholes in the corner of the compound. At the same time guards were increased. Almost immediately the Japanese attacked the shelters, throwing in buckets of gasoline and lighting it with torches. Men who tried to escape by running out, many on fire, were shot down with rifle and machine gun fire, or clubbed and bayoneted to death. About 40 succeeded in one way or another (including crawling through an "escape hatch" leading from one shelter outside the compound) in getting down over a cliff to the beach. Here they either hid or tried to get away by swimming. The Japanese hunted down and shot all they could catch. So far as is known every man was killed except ten who successfully hid until night and then swam the bay.

Victims: 150 United States soldiers, sailors and marines, all Prisoners of War. 10 of the victims are known to have escaped alive. All others were killed.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

TRANSMITTED BY
On 3 January 1942, Roy C. Bennett, Manager of the "Manila Bulletin" was arrested at Manila, Philippine Islands. For three months (approximate) he was held at the University of the Philippines, Villamor Hall for questioning about articles which he had written against Japan. For the succeeding 389 days he was imprisoned in Santiago Prison and there mistreated. He was kept in a barren cell with 15 other men. The cell was 12' x 13' in size, having no bedding or furniture. Only sanitation facilities was a box overturned over a hole in the floor. He was forced to sit on the floor day after day. The food given consisted of one serving of rice daily, an occasional smattering of sweet potato top, stale fish or poor scraps. No shaving or bathing facilities were provided, and he was not permitted to have word of the welfare of his family. His personal belongings, including eye glasses were taken from him and he lost weight from 160 lbs. to 90 lbs. His after physical condition and appearance evinced considerable physical abuse. In view of the length of principal victim's confinement, Accused No. 1 must be presumed to have had knowledge of and sanctioned the treatment accorded this and other victims in like circumstances.

Victims: Roy C. Bennett, Manila, Philippine Islands (Manager of the Manila Bulletin), and 15 unnamed persons, 2 of whom might possibly be Theo Rogers and McDulllock Dick, both of whom are believed to have been newspaper publishers of Manila, Philippine Islands.
1. Roy C. Bennett, civilian, Manila, Philippine Islands.
   Newspaper article by victim. This victim is Manager of Manila Tribune. His newspaper statement deals with general conditions as well as some general acts of mistreatment accorded him.

2. Charles W. Folsom, Lt. Col., M.C., 1205 Douglas Road, Miami, Fla.
   Copy of signed and sworn affidavit. Reports that Bennett's mistreatment consisted of being chained to cell floor, below water level, under unsanitary conditions.

3. Michael Joseph O'Hara, 1632 Dartford Road, Burkleigh Manor, Essex, Md.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Reports he was told by Bennett of his mistreatment and loss of weight from 160 lbs. to 90 lbs.

4. Marie Adams, Field Director, ARC, 517 W. 8th St., Aberdeen, Wash.
   Saw victim when he was brought to Santo Tomas after release from Santiago, and described his condition as follows: Appeared about 85 years old (though age about 50), suffering from beriberi, symptoms of dysentery, strikingly pale, and his skin drawn tightly over his bones. His abdomen distended horribly.

5. Anna Eleanor Williams, 1st Lt., ARC, Ser. No. N-703407, 1324 N. 15 St., Harrisburg, Penna.
   Signed and Sworn Statement. Nursed at Santo Tomas. Saw Theo Rogers and McCullock Dick at Philippine General Hospital, Manila, and observed their condition. Does not mention the name of Bennett.

1. Commanding Officer, Fort Santiago to 3.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Shortly after a United States Infantry Regiment’s attack on February 23–24, 1945, at Fort Santiago, 50 bodies were found piled in a room measuring 12 feet by 15 feet, the bodies showing evidence of starvation or extreme malnutrition and of having been repeatedly shot in the back. Their hands had been tied behind them. In a near-by stone building 15 feet square, 40 additional bodies were found. In another dungeon having stone walls five feet thick with steel doors seven feet high, and with its only window boarded from the inside and rocks piled against the outside, the starved bodies of nearly 300 men and women were found. The bodies were in a cage having iron bars, the cage measuring 15 feet by 15 feet.

Victims: Unidentified Prisoners of War numbering approximately 400 persons.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Sometime about October 1943, victim was arrested by the Japanese and taken to Fort Santiago where the first day she was questioned about eight hours. During this questioning, whenever her interrogators, Japanese Military Police, misunderstood her answers, she was slapped. She was placed in a cell that night and the following morning again questioned, after which she was made to kneel on a bamboo rack, about 18 inches high and 2 or 3 feet square. The top of the rack was made of sharp edged slats. This treatment cut her legs, causing infection and blood poisoning. She was also whipped with a leather belt while so kneeling. This occurred several times. The cell in which she was placed was about 5 feet wide and about 8 feet long and 6 feet high, in which were also confined 7 other women. They gave her about a teacup saucer of boiled rice, sometimes twice a day, sometimes 3 times a day. For four days of her confinement she was placed in solitary confinement and fed only rice, but given no water. Victim suffered a nervous breakdown and a badly infected leg. Victim was released after 30 days.

On 7 January 1942 James Paul Howard was taken by the Japanese to Fort Santiago and there held as an internee until 11 January 1942. The mistreatment accorded him by the Japanese Military Police is described by him as follows: His hands were tied behind his back and his ankles tied together with wet rope. Then his hands and feet were tied together, pulling his feet as far up toward his back as possible. In this condition, he was placed in a cell along with between 12 and 18 others, (None of whom are identified) until he was released on 11 January 1942. His wrist was broken as a result of being tied in above fashion, and the ropes cut into his arms. He bears scars therefrom. His food consisted of a glass of water and one rice ball once daily. He was compelled to silence. A like treatment was accorded the other men in his cell, many of whom were beaten with rubber mallets, sword scabbards, blackjacks; and gun butts. No medical attention was given.

On 5 April 1943, victim was taken as a prisoner of war to the Japanese Military Police Headquarters at Fort Santiago, Manila, Philippine Islands, where he was imprisoned with seventeen unidentified Filipino prisoners in a cell about ten feet square, having no lights, no toilet facilities, no outside openings and only one air vent about eight inches square. He was given no food until the second day and then only a watery gruel of rice and refuse from the guards' meal served in a wooden trough on the door twice a day. During the period of his imprisonment at Fort Santiago, victim was taken on three different occasions to an "interrogation room" for questioning by the Japanese Military Police, during the course of which questioning he was subjected to progressive degrees of physical punishment. During the first questioning, on 5 April 1943, he was slapped in the face and a lighted cigarette was extinguished on his bare chest. Following this ordeal, he was confined in solitary in a camp cell and required to sleep on a damp floor. During the second questioning which followed the first by about two days, he was slapped and beaten with fists in the face, kicked about the face and body, placed under a battery of lamps, and given the "water cure" three times interspersed with further slapping and beating. During the third questioning, victim was again slapped and beaten with fists, and suspended from the ceiling by his thumbs for about three hours. He was then lowered, revived, questioned again, and again suspended by his thumbs for about three hours. Victim was suspended twenty-four times by his thumbs on this third occasion, with his hands bound alternately in front and behind. On the twenty-third and twenty-fourth suspension, water was permitted to drop on his forehead at intervals of about five seconds for a period of about three hours. Victim was released on 23 April 1943 and delivered to Bilibid Prison, Manila. Before being released he signed, under threat of continued torture, a statement to the effect that he had not been afforded any inhumane treatment.

Short Statement of Facts:

About 6 February 1944, victim was arrested by the Japanese Military Police at Fort Santiago (individuals unidentified) and incarcerated at Fort Santiago. She was held one week before being first questioned, during which week her only food was a small saucer full of stale rice three times daily. Victim was questioned three times during the approximate one month of her confinement. During the first questioning, she was compelled to kneel on two narrow boards for about 62 hours. At the second questioning, she was beaten between the shoulders and hips with a leg of a chair, and also slapped in the face. At the third questioning, she was burned on the arms and back in three places with lighted cigarettes. As a result of the mistreatment, victim lost thirty-two pounds weight, suffered black and blue marks and a swollen face from the beatings.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Pt. Bullock was interned at Leyte High School. In early June 1942 he decided to try to escape, and hid under the schoolhouse to await an opportunity to evade the guards. However, he decided to abandon this plan and returned to his quarters inside the school. The Japanese somehow learned that someone had planned to escape, but did not know who. All the prisoners were taken to Tacloban for questioning. When Pt. Bullock learned that the other prisoners were being beaten as a means of obtaining information as to which one of them was planning to escape, he admitted that he was the one. He was then placed in solitary confinement and about ten days later rejoined the other prisoners. Nothing further happened until early July when the Japanese took Bullock away, telling the other prisoners that Bullock was to be executed because he was still thinking about escaping. When the guards returned to the camp they stated that they had executed Bullock. On the following day, Filipinos who claimed to have witnessed the execution reported that Bullock was required to kneel beside an open grave and was then beheaded. Accused No 1 was Commander of the Camp and responsible for the beatings and the execution. Accused Nos. 2 and 3 participated in the questioning and beating of the prisoners as well as the reported execution of the victim.

Victim: Lt. James J. Bullock, USN

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

At some time between September 1943 and July 1944 the victim was working on the Los Pinas airfield with one Rules, another Prisoner of War. A Japanese laborer, Accused No. 2 attached to the Japanese Military Forces under Accused No. 1 and who was apparently working on or supervising the activities at the airfield walked by the victim and Rules and said something to the victim and Rules. Rules repeated what he said. The laborer accused victim of repeating statement and when victim denied this he was struck several times by the laborer. Victim tried to ward off the blows and was struck on the little finger of the right hand. An examination later disclosed this finger to have been broken.

- At Foot of Mt. Samat near Balanga, Philippine Islands.

Number and description of crime in war crimes list.

- a. Murder and Massacres.
- b. Torture of Civilians.

References to relevant provisions of national law.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

In April, 1943, unidentified Japanese soldiers indiscriminately selected twelve Filipino civilians from the town of Balanga, tied them up and placed them in a covered truck, and drove them to the foot of Mt. Samat. They were then unloaded and untied. Two Filipinos attempted escape, one of whom was successful and the other of whom was shot. The remainder were forced to dig shallow graves, during which time they were beaten. Mosquito punks were placed on their stomachs, genital organs and other tender parts of their bodies. Some had mosquito punks put into their noses and ears. Others were hung to the trees by their thumbs and beaten with rifles. The torture administered was for the purpose of securing confessions of sabotage acts. Failing in their efforts to secure such confessions, the Japanese, under the direction of Accused No.1, killed the victims by shooting, bayoneting and beheading.

Victims: Eleven unidentified Filipino (civilians).

All of the victims, except Lt. Albert King, the Clardy family and the Filipinos, were United States missionaries and members of their families who fled to the hills about two or three kilometers from Katinunan to escape the Japanese. Lt. Albert King had been previously captured by the Japanese and was forced to lead a Japanese patrol to the hiding place of the victims. Having captured victims, the Japanese remained in the vicinity searching for others, and during that time tortured and killed the captives by bayoneting or decapitation, together with many Filipino women and children living in the neighbourhood. Lt. King, who apparently had been forced to act as guide by the Japanese was also killed.

Victims: Mark Clardy, Mrs. Fern Clardy, Terry Clardy, John Clardy, Rev. Erie F. Rounds, Mrs. Erie Rounds, Earl Douglas Rounds, Rev. James H.
